Vigorous 'Wright for Mayor' Drive Launched By Friends

Backers Will Ring Doorbells

Efficient City Rule Sought

More than 50 friends of Thomas B. Wright, First Ward councilman, last night launched a "Tom Wright for Mayor" campaign which they promised will reach every Republican doorstep in Mansfield before the primary election May 3.

Organizing into a "Tom Wright for Mayor" club, the group opened its membership to anyone who wants to see Wright elected Mayor.

Carl Johnson, club member, said, "We must contact every Republican voter in the city and make sure that voters get out and vote for Tom in the primary."

Johnson said the campaign would be organized on a ward and precinct basis with ward chairmen and co-chairmen and precinct leaders and assistants. A women's division is in process of formation under the supervision of Mrs. H. H. Schettler.

LOOKS TO FUTURE

Wright addressed the group, which met in the naval Reserve Armory on Ashland road. He pointed out that he is a native of the city and is proud to be a part of the city's past.

He added: "And I'm also a firm believer in the city's future. Our city is ideally located geographically so that continuous growth is inevitable."

He said he advocates a "long-range, but economical planning program for the city through willingness on part of city officials to seek advice from informed sources." He said business and labor leaders in Mansfield have state and national reputations.

URGES EFFICIENCY

"If we adopted such a program they would be eager to contribute their part. That would result in an increase in efficiency and economy in the city's government and insure 100 cents worth for each tax dollar spent."

He said the people of Mansfield are entitled to know what's going on and proposed a periodic report be made to the people of Mansfield. Along this line Wright said that while campaigning for council he had sent out cards

Plan Rural School Probe

A group of women has been appointed by the Farm Bureau Home and Community committee to investigate reports of overcrowded and unsanitary conditions in Richland county rural schools. The women, one from each school district, were appointed at a meeting of the committee held at the Sky club yesterday.

Women from every township and district in the county heard Mrs. John Steel, head of a committee, investigating the school problam in the county, give her report on conditions in county schools.

Mrs. Steel gave no specific examples but said overcrowded and unsanitary conditions exist in a number of county schools. In an open discussion following her report, it was brought out a number of children are suffering from athlete's foot due to dirty showers in county schools.

Results of the investigation will be announced at the April meeting.

Churchill Lauds A-Bomb

BOSTON — (UP) — Winston Churchill's declaration that Russia was prevented from overrunning Europe only by fear of the atomic bomb was broadcast to the iron curtain countries today by the state department's Voice of America.

"I must not conceal from you the truth as I see it," the wartime British prime minister said last night in a speech at Boston Garden.

"It is certain that Europe would have been communized, like Czechoslovakia, and London under bombardment some time ago, but for the deterrent of the atomic bomb in the hands of the United States."

Officials of the U. S. government's short wave radio service in New York said Churchill's remarks would make up the bulk of today's broadcasts to Russia and her satellites.

They said a particularly "deep impression" could be expected on their iron curtain listeners by Churchill's statement that the Russian leaders "fear the friendship of the west more than its hostility."

The 74-year-old Churchill rested in his hotel room today, planning to attend only two private functions, a noon reception and an evening banquet. Tonight he will accept an "honorary lectureship" from the Massachusetts Institute of Technology

A capacity crowd of 13,900 cheered Churchill's address.

Churchill said he did not believe that "violent or precipitate action" should be taken now against the menace of Soviet communism. He added his belief that "war is not inevitable."

Avoiding a picket line of 100 leftists marching with placards accusing him of warmongering, Churchill entered the vast sports arena to be greeted by a standing ovation by the crowd.

Fund Drive $2,112 Short

Richland Red Cross workers needed $2.112 today to meet their $48,835 quota.

Meanwhile Shelby went over the top with a total of $7,361 pledged. The city's goal was $6,500.

Campaign officials in Mansfield said they were sure the county quota will be reached when all the reports have been submitted.

One more ward was reported as having exceeded its goal. Mrs. Erwin Lowe turned in $2,381.10 with a quota of $2,333. Six more firms have joined the list of 100 per cent donors. They are Saltzgaber Drilling company, Shell Oil company, Ross Weekley Radio shop, Hart Oil company. Carpenter school staff and the Empire cafeteria.

Easter Egg Roll Again Called Off

WASHINGTON — (AP) — The once-traditional White House Easter egg roll has been called off again for the eighth consecutive time.

It was first discontinued as a security measure during the war, and wasn't revived by the Truman family.

Repair work being done on the executive mansion precludes its revival this year, officials said.

APRIL-FUELED PLANE LANDS AT TIMES SQUARE—Blase New Yorkers seen unconcerned as a DC-6 airliner comes in for practice landing at Times Square, New York City, preparatory to regular service to the heart of the metropolis. Fire Levels Large Barn

Flames Sweep County Landmark

A 70-year-old barn on the Virgil D. Hess farm, a mile and a half south of Mansfield, burned to the ground last night when fire of an unknown origin swept the building before firemen from Central station arrived.

Hess, who lives on U. S. Route 42, today estimated loss of the building and machinery at several thousand dollars. Firemen said they were unable to save the barn by the time they arrived and they were forced to devote their efforts to saving the house and adjoining garage.

Destroyed in the fire, in addition to the large barn, was a threshing machine and a binder, kept at the Hess barn by a neighbor, Carl Brumenshenkel, approximately 10 tons of hay and straw and other smaller farm machinery. No animals were housed in the barn.

Hess said his son, Al. 16, discovered the fire when he walked to the kitchen window about 9 p. m. Hess added that the barn, formerly in the Hoffman family, was built mainly of hand-hewn timbers.

Earlier last night, firemen from No. 2 station were called to 711 Bowman street where a chimney was burning out. Firemen said there was no damage. The alarm was sounded at 7:25 p. m.

At 9:20 a. m. today, Central station men were called to 19 North Main street, where a short in wiring was discovered in a Service taxi. There was no damage.

Drivers Obey Law, Display New Tags

Mansfield motorists are law abiding when it comes to auto licenses.

Police reported no arrests for displaying last year's auto tags had been made by the department this morning. Midnight was the deadline for using 1948 tags.

Municipal Judge H. H. Schettler said the maximum fine for driving with last years' tags is $25 and court costs. The deadline for the 1948 tags was at midnight Thursday.

Checks Total $1,174,050

County Distributes Record Tax Fund

The largest distribution of tax funds in Richland county history was made today by County Auditor Norman L. Wolfe. Checks were mailed to the county's subdivisions covering their share of the real estate and special assessment taxes collected during the winter.

County Auditor Wolfe said the settlement amounted to $1,174,050, including $23,111 in inheritance taxes. City and county schools received more than half of the total collection.

Wolfe explained the large distribution was made possible through larger tax duplicate since there has been an increase in building properties, and because of higher tax rates, due largely to bond issues.

The distribution is based on the amount of taxes collected in the political subdivisions.

Biggest portion of the distribution or a total of $676,635, went to the city and county school districts. Of that total, Mansfield schools received $430,237 and Madison school district, $42,410.

The City of Mansfield received $152,252, while the City of Shelby received $35,310.

Other distributions included: Richland county, $195,635; Shiloh, $794; Bellville, $1,473; Lucas, $1,272; Plymouth, $727; Lexington, $1,463; and Butler, $1,541. The 18 townships received $52,121, and Shelby schools, $62,272.

Again Seek Strike End

GALION — Negotiations resume at 10 a. m. Monday in Cleveland in the Central Ohio Steel Products company strike. Management and union officials met Wednesday and Thursday with federal conciliators in Cleveland and adjourned until Monday.

International Association of Machinists members walked out at the local plant on March 10, idling 150 employes and halting production.

All remains quiet on the other local strike front where another 150 IAM members struck at the Hercules Steel Products corporation on Feb. 21. But one unsuccessful Herhas been held.

Attending the Cleveland talks on the Central Ohio strike are H. J. Montoney and Steve Eddy, both federal conciliators.

94 Seek 11 City Jobs

Exams Will Be Held April 21

Ninety-four persons received applications for the April 21 civil service examination at city hall last night in the largest turnout for civil service jobs in Mansfield in more than 10 years.

An estimated 150 persons were interviewed for the 11 positions offered, but many were ineligible because they had not lived in Mansfield the required length of time.

Most popular job offered was the position of caretaker at Clear Fork reservoir. Twenty-four applicants will take the examination for that position.

Sixteen members of the police department will take the promotional examination for the two lieutenant posts that are open.

One of the department's lieutenancies is to fill the vacancy left by the death of Lieut. William J. Taylor who died of a gunshot wound suffered in the line of duty. The other is a newly created post with the traffic bureau.

Thirteen firemen secured applications for promotion to captain.

Firemen who will take the promotional examination for captain are: Daniel Snyder, Stanley Williamson, Roy Hardy, George W. Gump, Leonard Boebel, Irvin Remy, James Peck, Frank Kol-

4 Injured In 2 Area Mishaps

Student Hurt Near Ashland

Four persons, including an 18-year-old Mansfield college student, were seriously injured yesterday in two highway accidents in the area.

James Marvin Goodman, son of Mr. and Mrs. Martin R. Goodman, 633 Woodhill road, a student at Miami university, suffered a broken neck when his car figured in a three-car crash six and a half miles north of Ashland about noon yesterday.

Also injured in the crash was Sam B. Barton, 40, of Toledo, who suffered contusions of the chest and ribs and lacerations of the face.

Seriously injured at 8:30 p. m. yesterday three and a half miles east of Greenwich were Harry B. Culley, 51, and Mrs. Thedia Boyd Timblin, 21, both of Dubois, Pa.

Goodman, who has been cited by state patrolmen on a charge of passing without having an assured clear distance, was reported in "fair" condition at Ashland Samaritan hospital today. X-rays were being taken to determine other possible injury to his legs.

TRIED TO PASS

According to state highway patrolmen, Goodman was traveling south on U. S. Route 42, north of Ashland, and attempted to pass a truck in front of him when he noticed the Barton car and another, driven by Richard White, 29, of Cleveland Heights approaching.

Patrolmen said Goodman applied his brakes and skidded head-on into the Barton car. White avoided the collision by turning into a ditch. Also removed to the Ashland hospital, Barton was reported in "good" condition today.

Culley and Mrs. Timblin were both confined to Willard Municipal hospital today. State patrolmen said the accident occurred when Culley crashed into the rear of a truck, driven by Clyde E. Rose, 39, of Flint, Mich. Officers said the truck had slowed down for traffic and Culley apparently hadn't noticed the decrease of speed.

Culley suffered severe compound fractures of both ankles and Mrs. Timblin suffered a fractured pelvis and body lacerations.

New York's Cabs Strike

NEW YORK — (UP) — Thousands of taxi drivers went on strike for union recognition today and Mayor William O'Dwyer ordered 3,250 extra police on emergency duty to prevent expected violence.

A few minutes after cab drivers walked off the job at 4:30 a. m., Leon Zwicker, regional director for John L. Lewis' newly organized taxi union, charged that company hired strike - breakers were carrying guns to intimidate strikers.

Union spokesmen have declared that "not a wheel will roll" on the city's 11,510 cabs during the strike.

Shortly after the stike began, only a dozen taxis could be found cruising midtown Manhattan streets. Grand Central station, Pennsylvania station and the Midtown Airline terminal were deserted of taxis. Normally dozens are lined up at each place.

Nearly 100 strikers gathered in Times Square.

Skunk Takes Over House, Family Flees

CINCINNATI—(AP)—A small but potent skunk sniffed his way into the Albert Kichler home yesterday, forced three members of the family to flee, and then slowly wandered away.

"He was in the house only five minutes," Mrs. Kichler said, "but it seems he's still there."

The housewife followed a neighbor's suggestion to burn cedar needles.

"We've had some relief," she wryly reported.

Weatherman Plays April Fool Joke

Month of Flowers Begins With Snow

Instead of April showers and warm spring breezes, Mansfield got wet snow and chilly weather today, as nature played the biggest April Fool's prank of all.

Clearing and a little colder is the forecast for tonight. Saturday will be fair and a little warmer.

The five-day forecast calls for temperatures averaging about two degrees above normal. It will be somewhat warmer Saturday afternoon, followed by little temperature change until cooler Tuesday and Wednesday. Rain is likely Sunday and Monday with the total amount one-fourth to one-half inch.

MERCURY AT 35

At noon today the Mansfield temperature was hovering around the 35 mark after falling from a high of 63 shortly before noon yesterday. The temperature was just above the freezing mark at 6:30 a. m. today when the low of 33 was recorded.

Meanwhile, the leading edge of a vast storm area moved to the Atlantic coast and New England areas. The storm kicked up a tornado that whirled crazily through the Uniontown, Pa., area, injuring one man slightly and wrecking several buildings.

Northwestern Bell Telephone company reported that heavy snows had broken long distance lines in 500 places, isolating 50 towns in Nebraska, South Dakota and Minnesota. Five hundred farms were isolated.

Several deaths were attributed to the storm in addition to those who died in tornadoes in the west three days ago. A man and wife were killed in a collision during a blinding snowstorm in Minnesota, and a Newry, Minn., farmer was killed when his tractor hit a soft shoulder and overturned.

The bodies of Paul and Adam Dohman, 66 and 68 years old respectively, were found in a field near their ranch in the Atkinson, Neb., area, and neighbors said they were believed to have died of over-exertion and exposure in the storm in that area after leaving home to care for newly-born calves.

In California, rough weather was blamed for the crash of a light plane in which three persons died. One of the dead was Dr. Robert Thompson, Beverly Hills, a frequent escort of Judy Canova, movie actress. Miss Canova said she originally had planned to accompany Thompson on the air trip but was forced to cancel her plans.

Kremlin In Bitter Attack

Claims Alliance A 'Violation'

BULLETIN

WASHINGTON —(AP)— A top State department official suggested today the Russians need not worry about the North Atlantic treaty; all they have to do is not attack any member nation.

★

MOSCOW—(AP)— Russia today assailed the North Atlantic pact as an aggressive instrument designed to daunt nations which refuse to accept Anglo-American world domination.

An acid Soviet memorandum to the seven nations which originally sponsored the pact charged it violates international agreements and undermines "the very foundations" of the United Nations.

The note described the pact as "directed against the Soviet Union" and as being "openly aggressive" in character.

It has "nothing in common either with the tasks of self-defense of the parties to the treaty or with the real recognition of the aims and principles of the United Nations organization," the memorandum charged.

The pact, the note asserted, violates existing treaties between Britain and Russia, France and Russia and the Potsdam and Yalta agreements.

RUSSIA 'PEACEFUL'

Russia, the memorandum proclaimed, "does not intend to attack anyone."

The memorandum was announced by the official Soviet news agency Tass. It went to the United States, Britain, France, Belgium, Canada, The Netherlands and Luxembourg, the original sponsors. Soviet ambassadors in the seven countries handed the memorandum to each government.

Pointing to the exclusion of the Soviet Union from the treaty, the memorandum said that circumstance "can be explained only by the fact this treaty is directed against the U. S. S. R. as well as against the countries of the people's democracy (other communist nations)".

"The North Atlantic pact is designed to daunt the states which do not agree to obey the dictate of the Anglo-American grouping of the powers that lay claim to world domination," the memorandum alleged.

"The Soviet Union does not intend to attack anyone, and in no way threatens the United States, Great Britain, France, or the other signers of the treaty," it said.

Oleo Vote Seen Today

WASHINGTON — (INS) — A vote to repeal all federal taxes on oleo is expected in the House today. A close decision is anticipated on outlawing interstate sales of yellow margarine.

Repeal of federal taxes is assured. The House indicated its sentiment on this Thursday by a 382 to 9 vote.

The butter bloc stalled a vote, however, on the remaining issue until this afternoon in the belief that many congressmen from urban areas would be absent.

Members from metropolitan areas are generally expected to support the removal of all restrictions.

The main fight was over the Page bill, which the butter bloc was attempting to defeat.

4 Indicted In Housing Fraud

COLUMBUS — (AP) — Two Franklin county commissioners, a former commissione. and a contractor were indicted yesterday by the grand jury for alleged mishandling of a $337,637 veterans housing program in 1946.

The commissioners, C. P. Lauterbaugh and Harry T. Vigor, were charged with 14 counts of misconduct in office.

Former commissioner George M. Matson, who was in office at the time, was indicted jointly with them.

The contractor, Carl Lucas, was accused in two counts of presenting false bills to the county for payment.

Ralph J. Bartlett, Franklin county prosecutor, promised early trials.

Weird Sounds Interrupt Sleep

Strange Object Sighted In Clear Fork Reservoir

By JUSTIN GEST

Farmers in the vicinity of the new Clear Fork reservoir were awakened shortly before dawn today by a strange threshing sound emanating from the shallow waters which have been backing up in the reservoir for several days.

Mrs. W. H. Oosat, who lives near State Route 97, called the sheriff's office to report that her husband had gone out when he first heard the unusual sound and had not returned.

"I'm worried," Mrs. Oosat said, "and I'm afraid to leave the house to look for Walter (her husband)."

Sheriff's deputies who rushed to the scene found a group of men standing near the site of the new highlift pumping station discussing the odd sounds.

Oosat, unharmed, was among them. So was N. A. Bohr, who lives on the opposite side of the reservoir.

Both men said they had heard the weird noise and had gone out with lanterns to investigate.

They said they could see a large, flattish undulating object just under the surface of the water. At times it reared up and its edges made a flapping sound as the main body settled down below the surface again.

Bohr said that he could "make neither head nor tail of it"—and he meant that literally.

"It looked more like a big tarpaulin, than anything else," Oosat explained. "But it certainly vibrated funny and it had a luminous spot in the middle."

Dow T. Them, who arrived at the scene a few minutes later, with a powerful flashlight said he could just barely make out the outlines of the object as it sank towards the bottom.

"The noise had stopped, then," Them explained, but greenish bubbles appeared to be escaping upward from the water."

Bohr speculated that possibly an experimental flying wing had fallen into the reservoir and that air or gases kept it from sinking immediately.

Oosat insisted, however, that

Seeking Hands For Youngster

WESTPORT, CONN. — (INS) — Westport residents have put a new — and humane — twist to the familiar master of ceremonies appeal to "give this little girl a good hand."

The little girl is five-month-old Lenore Palumbo, only child of factory worker Leonard Palumbo and his wife, who was born without a left hand.

Westporters of all ages, with sums of varying amounts, are building a $7,000 trust fund to provide Lenore with 21 years of medical care, including a series of plastic hands which doctors say she will be able to manipulate with her forearm muscles.

Red Tape Cut By VA Unit

While most government agencies continued to add rules, regulations, and other bureaucratic restrictions, the Veterans Administration today applied the scissors to much of the 'red tape' in its training program.

Effective today, vets in training under the "GI Bill" will no longer be required to submit monthly reports of their progress in their particular training program.

The vet's earnings report, which is compiled every four months, now will incorporate the information formerly given in the monthly report.

This four-month report is filed jointly by the veteran and his employer or school and is used by the VA to determine the amount of subsistence coming to the ex-GI, and what progress is being made in his training.

G. D. Weidemaier, manager of the Mansfield VA office, said the new ruling would apply to veterans in on-the-job training, trade schools, and high schools. College students have never been required to file monthly reports, Weidemaier said.

Mansfield Scouts Invited To Camporall In Galion

Mansfield Scouts were invited today to attend the 22nd annual Johnny Appleseed area Camporall, to be held this year at Heise park in Galion.

The invitation was extended by Erie Brook, chairman of the Galion Scout District committee, for all Scouts in the Johnny Appleseed area to meet there on June 16, 17, and 18 for the annual three-day Scouting festival.

Of the past 21 Camporalls, 18 have been rained out or marred by rain, and the Galion Scouters hope the weatherman will be more considerate this time.

More than 500 Scouts attended the Camporall held last year at Mansfield Scouts' Camp Avery Hand, and Floyd Dent, area Scout executive, predicted an equally large turn-out at the Scout's field day at Galion.

For the past eight years the Johnny Appleseed area Camporalls have been held at Camp Avery Hand.

All the facilities of Heise park will be thrown open to the area Scouts, including the swimming pool, ball diamonds, and choice camp grounds.

Man Denies Charge Of Dumping Garbage

The case against Curt Zellner, 72, of 948 Olivesburg road, charged with dumping garbage and failing to remove it at the request of the health department was continued in Judge H. H. Schettler's Municipal court yesterday when Zellner pleaded innocent.

Zellner fainted at Reformatory drive and Olivesburg road early yesterday and was taken to General hospital and released later in the day.

Probe Twisted Bridge Ruins

HINTON, W. VA. — (INS) — Two bridge riggers were in critical condition today from injuries suffered when the highway bridge they were completing plummeted 150 feet in the Bluestone river, killing five of their companions.

Officials of the Virginia Bridge company initiated investigation of the cause as the West Virginia Road commission inspected the twisted girders of the buckled 278-foot center span.

The span — only 30-feet from completion — broke with a deafening roar and jackknifed into the river yesterday in a high wind. Nine men were thrown into six to eight feet of water. Four died in the rapid, muddy water and another succumbed in a nearby Hinton hospital.

North Carolina has launched a million-dollar program of research and development of its marine fisheries resources.

HERE is a pleasant little game that will give you a message every day. It is a numerical puzzle designed to spell out your fortune. Count the letters in your first name. If the number of letters is 6 or more, subtract 4. If the number is less than 6, add 3. The result is your key number. Start at the upper left-hand corner of the rectangle and check every one of your key numbers, left to right. Then read the message the letters under the checked figures give you.

Reveal New Technique In TB Fight

Army Doctors Commend Tests

WASHINGTON — (AP) — A new and so far promising treatment for lung tuberculosis has been developed by army researchers. They emphasize, however, that many more cases will have to be treated before it can be definitely appraised.

The method is a medical variation of the "old one-two punch" of the prize ring using tuberculin—a poisonous but controllable substance derived from tuberculosis germs—and streptomycin, one of the so-called "wonder drugs."

In effect, the tuberculin delivers a softening-up punch by opening up blood pathways that have been wholly or partially blocked by diseased tissue. Then streptomycin steps in to deliver the pay-off wallop.

Streptomycin is the most effective drug weapon yet discovered against tuberculosis germs. In association with tuberculin, it is able to reach and overcome more germs than when used alone, the researchers say.

The doctors say that so far 10 cases, involving all of the various phases of pulmonary tuberculosis, have been treated by the new method and that in eight of them all symptoms have been cleared in two months. No relapses were noted in nearly a year of observation.

The usual time required to eliminate symptoms with streptomycin alone is much longer, and relapses are frequent.

Lieut. Col. Eugene C. Jacobs, co-researcher with Lieut. Col. Joseph R. Vivas of the army medical center, explains the theory of the treatment this way:

"In tuberculosis of the lung the germs might be considered as lurking in 'caves' of diseased tissue (tubercles)which are difficult to penetrate with drugs, because the diseased tissue contains little or no network of blood vessels.

"We believe that tuberculin lifts the barrier, so to speak, so that the effectiveness of streptomycin can be increased in two ways—first, by penetrating farther into the caves, and secondly by knocking off other germs as they escape from the caves."

The doctors reported their findings in the Bulletin of the army medical department and gave further details in an interview.

Explaining why cases treated with streptomycin alone frequently relapsed, Jacobs said:

"Streptomycin will knock off sufficient of the germs outside of the tubercles to make the patient well, and then nature will seal the openings of the caves so that the germs inside cannot escape.

"However, when the convallescing patient subsequently catches cold, or over-exercises, a weakening of the 'cave' barrier results at a time when there is no streptomycin in the system to attack the liberated germs, and the tuberculosis becomes reactivated.

The army doctors are permitting their patients to be out of bed during treatment, when there are no complications.

Mild exercise helps to keep the "caves" open. After the drug treatment is completed, however, the patients are advised to take things easy for awhile.

Vigorous 'Wright for Mayor' Drive Launched By Friends

Backers Will Ring Doorbells

Efficient City Rule Sought

More than 50 friends of Thomas B. Wright, First Ward councilman, last night launched a "Tom Wright for Mayor" campaign which they promised will reach every Republican doorstep in Mansfield before the primary election May 3.

Organizing into a "Tom Wright for Mayor" club, the group opened its membership to anyone who wants to see Wright elected Mayor.

Carl Johnson, club member, said, "We must contact every Republican voter in the city and make sure that voters get out and vote for Tom in the primary."

Johnson said the campaign would be organized on a ward and precinct basis with ward chairmen and co-chairmen and precinct leaders and assistants. A women's division is in process of formation under the supervision of Mrs. H. H. Schettler.

LOOKS TO FUTURE

Wright addressed the group, which met in the naval Reserve Armory on Ashland road. He pointed out that he is a native of the city and is proud to be a part of the city's past.

He added: "And I'm also a firm believer in the city's future. Our city is ideally located geographically so that continuous growth is inevitable."

He said he advocates a "long-range, but economical planning program for the city through willingness on part of city officials to seek advice from informed sources." He said business and labor leaders in Mansfield have state and national reputations.

URGES EFFICIENCY

"If we adopted such a program they would be eager to contribute their part. That would result in an increase in efficiency and economy in the city's government and insure 100 cents worth for each tax dollar spent."

He said the people of Mansfield are entitled to know what's going on and proposed a periodic report be made to the people of Mansfield. Along this line Wright said that while campaigning for council he had sent out cards

Plan Rural School Probe

A group of women has been appointed by the Farm Bureau Home and Community committee to investigate reports of overcrowded and unsanitary conditions in Richland county rural schools. The women, one from each school district, were appointed at a meeting of the committee held at the Sky club yesterday.

Women from every township and district in the county heard Mrs. John Steel, head of a committee, investigating the school problam in the county, give her report on conditions in county schools.

Mrs. Steel gave no specific examples but said overcrowded and unsanitary conditions exist in a number of county schools. In an open discussion following her report, it was brought out a number of children are suffering from athlete's foot due to dirty showers in county schools.

Results of the investigation will be announced at the April meeting.

Churchill Lauds A-Bomb

BOSTON — (UP) — Winston Churchill's declaration that Russia was prevented from overrunning Europe only by fear of the atomic bomb was broadcast to the iron curtain countries today by the state department's Voice of America.

"I must not conceal from you the truth as I see it," the wartime British prime minister said last night in a speech at Boston Garden.

"It is certain that Europe would have been communized, like Czechoslovakia, and London under bombardment some time ago, but for the deterrent of the atomic bomb in the hands of the United States."

Officials of the U. S. government's short wave radio service in New York said Churchill's remarks would make up the bulk of today's broadcasts to Russia and her satellites.

They said a particularly "deep impression" could be expected on their iron curtain listeners by Churchill's statement that the Russian leaders "fear the friendship of the west more than its hostility."

The 74-year-old Churchill rested in his hotel room today, planning to attend only two private functions, a noon reception and an evening banquet. Tonight he will accept an "honorary lectureship" from the Massachusetts Institute of Technology

A capacity crowd of 13,900 cheered Churchill's address.

Churchill said he did not believe that "violent or precipitate action" should be taken now against the menace of Soviet communism. He added his belief that "war is not inevitable."

Avoiding a picket line of 100 leftists marching with placards accusing him of warmongering. Churchill entered the vast sports arena to be greeted by a standing ovation by the crowd.

Fund Drive $2,112 Short

Richland Red Cross workers needed $2,112 today to meet their $48,835 quota.

Meanwhile Shelby went over the top with a total of $7,361 pledged. The city's goal was $6,500.

Campaign officials in Mansfield said they were sure the county quota will be reached when all the reports have been submitted.

One more ward was reported as having exceeded its goal. Mrs. Erwin Lowe turned in $2,381.10 with a quota of $2,333. Six more firms have joined the list of 100 per cent donors. They are Saltzgaber Drilling company, Shell Oil company, Ross Weekley Radio shop, Hart Oil company, Carpenter school staff and the Empire cafeteria.

Easter Egg Roll Again Called Off

WASHINGTON — (AP) — The once-traditional White House Easter egg roll has been called off again for the eighth consecutive time.

It was first discontinued as a security measure during the war, and wasn't revived by the Truman family.

Repair work being done on the executive mansion precludes its revival this year, officials said.

Fire Levels Large Barn

Flames Sweep County Landmark

A 70-year-old barn on the Virgil D. Hess farm, a mile and a half south of Mansfield, burned to the ground last night when fire of an unknown origin swept the building before firemen from Central station arrived.

Hess, who lives on U. S. Route 42, today estimated loss of the building and machinery at several thousand dollars. Firemen said they were unable to save the barn by the time they arrived and they were forced to devote their efforts to saving the house and adjoining garage.

Destroyed in the fire, in addition to the large barn, was a threshing machine and a binder, kept at the Hess barn by a neighbor, Carl Brumenshenkel, approximately 10 tons of hay and straw and other smaller farm machinery. No animals were housed in the barn.

Hess said his son, Al, 16, discovered the fire when he walked to the kitchen window about 9 p. m. Hess added that the barn, formerly in the Hoffman family, was built mainly of hand-hewn timbers.

Earlier last night, firemen from No. 2 station were called to 711 Bowman street where a chimney was burning out. Firemen said there was no damage. The alarm was sounded at 7:25 p. m.

At 9:20 a. m. today, Central station men were called to 19 North Main street, where a short in wiring was discovered in a Service taxi. There was no damage.

Drivers Obey Law, Display New Tags

Mansfield motorists are law abiding when it comes to auto licenses.

Police reported no arrests for displaying last year's auto tags had been made by the department this morning. Midnight was the deadline for using 1948 tags.

Municipal Judge H. H. Schettler said the maximum fine for driving with last years' tags is $25 and court costs. The deadline for the 1948 tags was at midnight Thursday.

County Distributes Record Tax Fund

The largest distribution of tax funds in Richland county history was made today by County Auditor Norman L. Wolfe. Checks were mailed to the county's subdivisions covering their share of the real estate and special assessment taxes collected during the winter.

County Auditor Wolfe said the settlement amounted to $1,174,050, including $23.111 in inheritance taxes. City and county schools received more than half of the total collection.

Wolfe explained the large distribution was made possible through larger tax duplicate since there has been an increase in building properties, and because of higher tax rates, due largely to bond issues.

The distribution is based on the amount of taxes collected in the political subdivisions.

Biggest portion of the distribution or a total of $676,635, went to the city and county school districts. Of that total, Mansfield schools received $430,237 and Madison school district, $42,410.

The City of Mansfield received $152,252, while the City of Shelby received $35,310.

Other distributions included: Richland county, $195.635; Shiloh, $794; Bellville, $1,473; Lucas, $1,272; Plymouth, $727; Lexington, $1,463; and Butler, $1,541. The 18 townships received $52,121, and Shelby schools, $62,272.

Again Seek Strike End

GALION — Negotiations resume at 10 a. m. Monday in Cleveland in the Central Ohio Steel Products company strike. Management and union officials met Wednesday and Thursday with federal counciliators in Cleveland and adjourned until Monday.

International Association of Machinists members walked out at the local plant on March 10, idling 150 employes and halting production.

All remains quiet on the other local strike front where another 150 IAM members struck at the Hercules Steel Products corporation on Feb. 21. But one unsuccessful Herhas been held.

Attending the Cleveland talks on the Central Ohio strike are H. J. Montoney and Steve Eddy, both federal conciliators.

94 Seek 11 City Jobs

Exams Will Be Held April 21

Ninety-four persons received applications for the April 21 civil service examination at city hall last night in the largest turnout for civil service jobs in Mansfield in more than 10 years.

An estimated 150 persons were interviewed for the 11 positions offered, but many were ineligible because they had not lived in Mansfield the required length of time.

Most popular job offered was the position of caretaker at Clear Fork reservoir. Twenty-four applicants will take the examination for that position.

Sixteen members of the police department will take the promotional examination for the two lieutenant posts that are open.

One of the department's lieutenancies is to fill the vacancy left by the death of Lieut. William J. Taylor who died of a gunshot wound suffered in the line of duty. The other is a newly created post with the traffic bureau.

Thirteen firemen secured applications for promotion to captain.

Firemen who will take the promotional examination for captain are: Daniel Snyder, Stanley Williamson, Roy Hardy, George W. Gump, Leonard Boebel, Irvin Remy, James Peck, Frank Kol-

Claim Aly, Rita To Be Married April 8

PARIS — (INS) — A Swiss newspaper said today that Aly Khan and Rita Hayworth will be married on April 8 in Zurich, in a Russian Orthodox ceremony.

The Zurich newspaper Die Tat carried the report, which was re-printed in Paris dailies.

4 Injured In 2 Area Mishaps

Student Hurt Near Ashland

Four persons, including an 18-year-old Mansfield college student, were seriously injured yesterday in two highway accidents in the area.

James Marvin Goodman, son of Mr. and Mrs. Martin R. Goodman, 633 Woodhill road, a student at Miami university, suffered a broken neck when his car figured in a three-car crash six and a half miles north of Ashland about noon yesterday.

Also injured in the crash was Sam B. Barton, 40, of Toledo, who suffered contusions of the chest and ribs and lacerations of the face.

Seriously injured at 8:30 p. m. yesterday three and a half miles east of Greenwich were Harry B. Culley, 51, and Mrs. Thedia Boyd Timblin, 21, both of Dubois, Pa.

Goodman, who has been cited by state patrolmen on a charge of passing without having an assured clear distance, was reported in "fair" condition at Ashland Samaritan hospital today. X-rays were being taken to determine other possible injury to his legs.

TRIED TO PASS

According to state highway patrolmen, Goodman was traveling south on U. S. Route 42, north of Ashland, and attempted to pass a truck in front of him when he noticed the Barton car and another, driven by Richard White, 29, of Cleveland Heights approaching.

Patrolmen said Goodman applied his brakes and skidded head-on into the Barton car. White avoided the collision by turning into a ditch. Also removed to the Ashland hospital, Barton was reported in "good" condition today.

Culley and Mrs. Timblin were both confined to Willard Municipal hospital today. State patrolmen said the accident occurred when Culley crashed into the rear of a truck, driven by Clyde E. Rose, 39, of Flint, Mich. Officers said the truck had slowed down for traffic and Culley apparently hadn't noticed the decrease of speed.

Culley suffered severe compound fractures of both ankles and Mrs. Timblin suffered a fractured pelvis and body lacerations.

New York's Cabs Strike

NEW YORK — (UP) — Thousands of taxi drivers went on strike for union recognition today and Mayor William O'Dwyer ordered 3,250 extra police on emergency duty to prevent expected violence.

A few minutes after cab drivers walked off the job at 4:30 a. m., Leon Zwicker, regional director for John L. Lewis' newly organized taxi union, charged that company hired strike - breakers were carrying guns to intimidate strikers.

Union spokesmen have declared that "not a wheel will roll" on the city's 11,510 cabs during the strike.

Shortly after the stike began, only a dozen taxis could be found cruising midtown Manhattan streets. Grand Central station, Pennsylvania station and the Midtown Airline terminal were deserted of taxis. Normally dozens are lined up at each place.

Nearly 100 strikers gathered in Times Square.

Skunk Takes Over House, Family Flees

CINCINNATI—(AP)—A small but potent skunk sniffed his way into the Albert Kichler home yesterday, forced three members of the family to flee, and then slowly wandered away.

"He was in the house only five minutes," Mrs. Kichler said, "but it seems he's still there."

The housewife followed a neighbor's suggestion to burn cedar needles.

"We've had some relief," she wryly reported.

Weatherman Plays April Fool Joke

Month of Flowers Begins With Snow

Instead of April showers and warm spring breezes, Mansfield got wet snow and chilly weather today, as nature played the biggest April Fool's prank of all.

Clearing and a little colder is the forecast for tonight. Saturday will be fair and a little warmer.

The five-day forecast calls for temperatures averaging about two degrees above normal. It will be somewhat warmer Saturday afternoon, followed by little temperature change until cooler Tuesday and Wednesday. Rain is likely Sunday and Monday with the total amount one-fourth to one-half inch.

MERCURY AT 35

At noon today the Mansfield temperature was hovering around the 35 mark after falling from a high of 63 shortly before noon yesterday. The temperature was just above the freezing mark at 6:30 a. m. today when the low of 33 was recorded.

Meanwhile, the leading edge of a vast storm area moved to the Atlantic coast and New England areas. The storm kicked up a tornado that whirled crazily through the Uniontown, Pa., area, injuring one man slightly and wrecking several buildings.

Northwestern Bell Telephone company reported that heavy snows had broken long distance lines in 500 places, isolating 50 towns in Nebraska, South Dakota and Minnesota. Five hundred farms were isolated.

Several deaths were attributed to the storm in addition to those who died in tornadoes in the west three days ago. A man and wife were killed in a collision during a blinding snowstorm in Minnesota, and a Newry, Minn., farmer was killed when his tractor hit a soft shoulder and overturned.

The bodies of Paul and Adam Dohman, 66 and 68 years old respectively, were found in a field near their ranch in the Atkinson, Neb., area, and neighbors said they were believed to have died of over-exertion and exposure in the storm in that area after leaving home to care for newly-born calves.

In California, rough weather was blamed for the crash of a light plane in which three persons died. One of the dead was Dr. Robert Thompson, Beverly Hills, a frequent escort of Judy Canova, movie actress. Miss Canova said she originally had planned to accompany Thompson on the air trip but was forced to cancel her plans.

Highlight of today's activities at the three-day celebration will be a golden wedding party for all couples in the state who have been married 50 years or more. Wedding gowns dating back to 157 will be modeled at the party.

Daily features of the festival will be sheep-shearing, log-chopping and sawing contests and herding demonstrations. Much coveted prizes for the best maple products will be awarded tomorrow.

Kremlin In Bitter Attack

Claims Alliance A 'Violation'

BULLETIN

WASHINGTON —(AP)— A top State department official suggested today the Russians need not worry about the North Atlantic treaty; all they have to do is not attack any member nation.

MOSCOW—(AP)— Russia today assailed the North Atlantic pact as an aggressive instrument designed to daunt nations which refuse to accept Anglo-American world domination.

An acid Soviet memorandum to the seven nations which originally sponsored the pact charged it violates international agreements and undermines "the very foundations" of the United Nations.

The note described the pact as "directed against the Soviet Union" and as being "openly aggressive" in character.

It has "nothing in common either with the tasks of self-defense of the parties to the treaty or with the real recognition of the aims and principles of the United Nations organization," the memorandum charged.

The pact, the note asserted, violates existing treaties between Britain and Russia, France and Russia and the Potsdam and Yalta agreements.

RUSSIA 'PEACEFUL'

Russia, the memorandum proclaimed, "does not intend to attack anyone."

The memorandum was announced by the official Soviet news agency Tass. It went to the United States, Britain, France, Belgium, Canada, The Netherlands and Luxembourg, the original sponsors. Soviet ambassadors in the seven countries handed the memorandum to each government.

Pointing to the exclusion of the Soviet Union from the treaty, the memorandum said that circumstance "can be explained only by the fact this treaty is directed against the U. S. S. R. as well as against the countries of the people's democracy (other communist nations)".

"The North Atlantic pact is designed to daunt the states which do not agree to obey the dictate of the Anglo-American grouping of the powers that lay claim to world domination," the memorandum alleged.

"The Soviet Union does not intend to attack anyone, and in no way threatens the United States, Great Britain, France, or the other signers of the treaty," it said.

Oleo Vote Seen Today

WASHINGTON — (INS) — A vote to repeal all federal taxes on oleo is expected in the House today. A close decision is anticipated on outlawing interstate sales of yellow margarine.

Repeal of federal taxes is assured. The House indicated its sentiment on this Thursday by a 382 to 9 vote.

The butter bloc stalled a vote, however, on the remaining issue until this afternoon in the belief that many congressmen from urban areas would be absent.

Members from metropolitan areas are generally expected to support the removal of all restrictions.

The main fight was over the Page bill, which the butter bloc was attempting to defeat.

4 Indicted In Housing Fraud

COLUMBUS — (AP) — Two Franklin county commissioners, a former commissione and a contractor were indicted yesterday by the grand jury for alleged mishandling of a $337,637 veterans housing program in 1946.

The commissioners, C. P. Lauterbaugh and Harry T. Vigor, were charged with 14 counts of misconduct in office.

Former commissioner George M. Matson, who was in office at the time, was indicted jointly with them.

The contractor, Carl Lucas, was accused in two counts of presenting false bills to the county for payment.

Ralph J. Bartlett, Franklin county prosecutor, promised early trials.

Weird Sounds Interrupt Sleep

Strange Object Sighted In Clear Fork Reservoir

By JUSTIN GEST

Farmers in the vicinity of the new Clear Fork reservoir were awakened shortly before dawn today by a strange threshing sound emanating from the shallow waters which have been backing up in the reservoir for several days.

Mrs. W. H. Oosat, who lives near State Route 97, called the sheriff's office to report that her husband had gone out when he first heard the unusual sound and had not returned.

"I'm worried," Mrs. Oosat said, "and I'm afraid to leave the house to look for Walter (her husband)."

Sheriff's deputies who rushed to the scene found a group of men standing near the site of the new highlift pumping station discussing the odd sounds.

Oosat, unharmed, was among them. So was N. A. Bohr, who lives on the opposite side of the reservoir.

Both men said they had heard the weird noise and had gone out with lanterns to investigate.

They said they could see a large, flattish undulating object just under the surface of the water. At times it reared up and its edges made a flapping sound as the main body settled down below the surface again.

Bohr said that he could "make neither head nor tail of it"—and he meant that literally.

"It looked more like a big tarpaulin, than anything else." Oosat explained. "But it certainly vibrated funny and it had a luminous spot in the middle."

Dow T. Them, who arrived at the scene a few minutes later, with a powerful flashlight said he could just barely make out the outlines of the object as it sank towards the bottom.

"The noise had stopped, then," Them explained, but greenish bubbles appeared to be escaping upward from the water."

Bohr speculated that possibly an experimental flying wing had fallen into the reservoir and that air or gases kept it from sinking immediately.

Oosat insisted, however, that

Conservation Unification, Oleo Bills Handed to Committee

Action Due Wednesday On Measures

Sportsmen Fight Losing Battle

COLUMBUS — (INS) — The unified conservation bill, supported by both parties and representing eight years of effort to join all conservation activities in one new "department of natural resources," may come up for its final legislative hurdle next Wednesday.

As the legislature went into week-end recess, the bill was placed formally in the hands of the Calendar committeee — which also is holding the bitterly-contested, farm-vs.-city colored oleomargarine bill.

The oleo measure, almost certainly, will not be brought to a vote next week. Speaker John Cantwell said some Calendar committee members preferred to wait at least a while to see what effect, if any, pending federal oleo legislation may have on the Ohio proposal.

The conservation bill also could be sidestepped another week if the leaders feel it necessary to have more time to salve the feelings of die-hard, all-out advocates of independence of control for the forestry and wildlife divisions.

The measure, unanimously passed by the Senate and bearing the 14-4 blessing of the House Conservation committee, appears to have outlasted all serious opposition except for the scattered die-hards.

The League of Ohio Sportsmen, still battling forlornly to win autonomy for the wildlife section of the new department similar to that now possessed by the present conservation division, and forestry advocates who want to block transfer of certain forest parks from the forestry to the parks division, undoubtedly will make a final floor fight for their proposals.

Their spokesman will be Rep L. P. Mooney (R-Hocking), and probably Rep. Guy C. Hiner (R-Stack) as well. Hiner voted for the bill in committee but supported all of the defeated Mooney amendments.

However, there will be no party lines in the fight. Leaders on both sides are firm supporters of the bill in its present form.

Wright For Mayor Drive Launched

Campaign to Go Into City Homes

asking voters in his ward what they considered the city's biggest problems.

He found, he said, that parking was considered the biggest problem, "but the present administration has not taken the lead to take some action on the parking problem," Wright charged.

Wright said Mansfield has an excellent recreation director, but charged that he has had no support from the administration.

He said that if the mayor took the lead, he could make Mansfield the leading city of its size. Wright said this could be accomplished in part by having more meetings with heads of departments.

NEED BACKING

"There are good men working for the city," Wright said, "but they need backing. They're not getting it."

He said he would look into each department and see where corners can be cut and money saved. Drawing on his Navy experience, Wright said a large ultra-modern battleship driven by an outboard motor boat was still an outboard motorboat. He said Mansfield was like that because it wasn't getting sufficient propulsion.

Wright, telling his listeners that they were the coaches and that politics is a game, said to them: "Put me in—coach!"

Johnson said Wright seeks to become mayor "entirely unfettered by any political obligations. He wants that understood." Anyone may join the club, Johnson added and contributions will be welcomed but they will be limited to a maximum of $1 per member.

James R. McConnell said his observations were purely his own," and they result from his civic interest to see better municipal government. He charged that the present mayor was unable to get along with council.

He said the mayor refuses to take advice. He charged there was waste and inefficiency in the city government. McConnell explained that Mansfield has many well trained and especially qualified citizens who would be willing to consult with the mayor but who are never given an opportunity to express their ideas.

Harry C. Ahl talked on Wright's background, saying he comes from an old Mansfield family and is a great grandson of Captain A. C. Cummins, mayor of Mansfield in 1869, exactly 80 years ago.

He said Wright is an active member of the Grace Episcopal church and that he served with the Navy nearly five years.

He added that Wright was commanding officer of the Naval Reserve Training unit, a member of the American Legion and Amvets, chairman of a Red Cross committee, a member of the Kiwanis, Chamber of Commerce, Jaycees, and First Ward councilman. "Tom Wright is the right man for mayor," he concluded.

Johnson told the group the meeting was held in the Naval Armory because the Navy makes armories available to civic groups for meetings.

Board Lets Equipment Contracts

Orders Materials For Grade Schools

Contracts for providing stage equipment for four new grade schools were awarded at noon today by the Mansfield board of education.

The Janson Industries, of Canton, was awarded the contracts for providing stage equipment for the Newman school, with a low base bid of $1,315, and for the West Fifth street school, $1,385.

The Pittsburgh Stage and Equipment studios won the contracts for the Roseland school, with a low bid of $1,987, and for the Grubaugh school, $423. The bids were opened Monday. Four companies had submitted offers.

The board deferred action on a request by City Recreation Director Stanley Kamen for permission to use the kiln room in Senior High school for a class in ceramics. The matter is to be investigated further.

It approved, members said the class would be set up as an extension class rather than under the recreation program.

The board approved a motion which states that in specifications for future buildings the board reserves the right to approve all materials substituted for materials set up in the specifications.

Oakland Barbers Quit $1.25 'Cuts

Barbers in Oakland, near Pittsburgh, have cut the price of haircuts — from a $1.25 back to a dollar.

That was one of the few strongholds where barbers clung to the $1.25 price, which they started charging in August. Mansfield barbers, incidentally, are still clinging to the $1.25 price.

Only in Oakland and a few areas near there was the $1.25 price general. The Oakland reduction leaves only a few shops charging over a dollar in that area. Many never did go up from 85 cents, the price charged two years ago.

Derby Site To Be Sold

LOUISVILLE —(AP)—The Louisville Times said today Churchill Downs likely will be sold soon to a foundation for operation as a non-profit horse racing plant.

The Downs, home of the internationally known Kentucky derby, has operated here since 1875. It is a subsidiary of the American Turf corporation and both organizations are headed by Col. Matt J. Winn.

The Times said the Churchill Downs Foundation, incorporated by the state of Kentucky in 1946, likely will purchase the Downs for benefit of the University of Louisville's College of Medicine and other similar institutions. Officials declined comment.

The proposed sale will be taken up Monday at a meeting of the American Turf directors in Chicago, the Times said. If the sale is approved, the Times said the actual transfer would take place after the spring meeting at the Downs, ending May 21.

Commissioners OK Placed On 'Home'

County commissioners, following their monthly inspection of the County Home yesterday, said they found conditions to be good and that no complaints were filed by residents.

They said the institution was generally in a clean and orderly appearance. Harry Weaver, superintendent of the Home, reported to the commissioners the purchase of a tractor for use on the County Home farm. Price was $1,486, minus a trade-in allowance of $40 for a corn-planter.

Rain Lone Barrier to Kite Carnival In Park Tomorrow

The Mansfield kite carnival scheduled for tomorrow at 9 a. m. at Liberty park will be held although the grounds were reported wet this morning.

Co-sponsors of the kite flying contest, the Mansfield Recreation department and the Mansfield YMCA, said the carnival would definitely be held unless it is raining tomorrow morning.

Prizes for the winners of the various divisions of the contest have been donated by six Mansfield merchants.

The prizes include sporting equipment, pocket knives and watches, and pen and pencil sets.

In the event of rain, a later date for the kite festival will be announced.

Sees Tragedy In Lost Soul

"The greatest tragedy of the universe is to lose your immortal soul," Rev. Jack Shuler told an audience in the Johnny Appleseed auditorium last night.

Rev. Shuler, evangelist sponsored here by 25 Mansfield churches, took his text from Luke 15.

"Lost is not a pleasant word. It is a sad thing to lose wealth, health and life. Yet these are not the saddest things to lose."

Rev. Shuler said there are "three roads that lead to hell."

"The first is the road of the lost sheep," he declared. "The second is that of the lost coin and the third the lost son. How was the sheep lost? Because he was unconcerned and indifferent. The coin was lost because of outside forces beyond its control, such as gravity and darkness. What did Jesus do? He took the light and went in search of it. The son was lost by his rebellion, stubborness and self-will against his father.

"What does God do for the prodigal?" Rev. Shuler asked. "He sends a famine. It is the famine of difficulties that brings the sinner to himself so that he will arise and return to his Father's home."

There will be a sacred concert at 7:15 p. m. each day throughout the remainder of the campaign which closes Sunday night. These programs will be all-request concerts.

Rev. Shuler's subject tonight will be "The High Cost of Christianity."

YMCA Cancels Gym Classes Saturday

John Fike, YMCA physical director, announced today there would be no gym class at the "Y" Saturday morning. Swimming classes will begin at 9 a. m.

The cancellation of the gym class was necessary, Fike said, because of the Kite Carnival in Liberty park at 9 a. m. and because the "Y" senior rifle club will be using the gymnasium Saturday.

Form 2 More Indian Tribes

The YMCA Indian Guide program for first, second and third-graders added two more groups to its growing list of "Indian Tribes" last night.

Fathers of boys from the Brinkerhoff and Prospect schools held organization meetings at the homes of L. H. Houston, 106 Lind avenue, and D. W. Ashbaugh, 1023 Sunset boulevard, respectively.

Acting "chiefs" for the two groups are Robert Wingert and Ashbaugh.

Next meeting for the Prospect Indian Guides will be at the home of R. G. Appleby, 516 Westview boulevard, at 7:30 p. m., April 7.

The Brinkerhoff group will meet at Wingert's home at 448 Glessner avenue, at 7:30 p. m., April 8.

County Receives Two Bread Bids

Two bids were received today at the county commissioners' office for supplying bread to the Richland County Home for one year, beginning May 2.

Bids were received from the Continental Baking company and Stimmler's Bakery. P. S. Carroll, board clerk, said the bids would be opened later today by the commissioners and the awards probably made tomorrow.

Survey, Tour Set At OSR Monday

The annual tour and survey of Mansfield reformatory by the Cuyahoga County Grand Jury association will be taken Monday at the institution, Acting Supt. George Allarding announced today.

Association members will convene at the reformatory at 10 a. m. for an all-day session. Luncheon will be served the jury members in the private dining room at noon.

Water Job Delayed

The city has decided to wait another week before moving the equipment scheduled for the new high-lift pumping station at the Clear Forks project.

Mayor Roy W. Vaughn said yesterday the delay was ordered on the advice of the project engineer, Carl Walker of Jennings-Lawrence company, Columbus.

Walker has decided to wait until the rain-softened ground around the site of the new installation hardens so the hook-up of a pump might go off without difficulty, the mayor indicated.

The job originally was scheduled for March 18, but was held up by a water line leak and other construction difficulties.

The operation consists of the moving of a pump from the Maxwell station to the new station at the foot of Cook road. When installed, it will draw more water from the wells now in use.

ARRESTED HERE

Willie Bryant, 39, of New Britain, Conn., wanted for felonious assault, was arrested by detectives here today. He waived extradition and was returned to New Britain to face the charge.

Lackadaisical Trading Noted On Stock Exchange Today

NEW YORK—(AP)—Demand for stocks was a lackadaisical at best in today's market.

Prices receded fractions to around a point all along the line. Turnover contracted to the dawdling rate which has distinguished so many recent sessions.

Liquor stocks did no more than follow the market, as was the case yesterday, despite news of price cuts on a number of whisky brands. Schenley lost around ¾ point but National Distillers and Distillers corporation slipped only minor fractions. Publicker Industries, the outfit which broke the retail liquor price line, lost ½.

Crawford's Tax Collections For First Half Hit $467,772

BUCYRUS — Tax collections made at the office of Crawford county Treasurer Mae L Kloefpfer since the tax books were opened Feb. 21 for payment of first half taxes now total $467,772, the treasurer reported today. The books are scheduled to be closed over the week-end.

Mrs. Kloepfer disclosed tax payments Wednesday amounted to $118,368, including a check for $67,822, representing the first half payment of the Pennsylvania Railroad company for its property in this county.

Many of the real estate taxpayers paid their taxes for the entire year, the treasurer stated.

The office is employing, for the first time, a "snap-out" form for tax collections. Statements are mailed to taxpayers in Crawford county with the exception of Bucyrus.

The system is the same as that used in many surrounding counties, Mrs. Kloepfer reported.

Seeking Hands For Youngster

WESTPORT, CONN. — (INS) — Westport residents have put a new — and humane — twist to the familiar master of ceremonies appeal to "give this little girl a good hand."

The little girl is five-month-old Lenore Palumbo, only child of factory worker Leonard Palumbo and his wife, who was born without a left hand.

Westporters of all ages, with sums of varying amounts, are building a $7,000 trust fund to provide Lenore with 21 years of medical care, including a series of plastic hands which doctors say she will be able to manipulate with her forearm muscles.

In buying seafood such as oysters, clams and mussels, make sure the shells are tightly closed. If the shells do not close when the shellfish are handled it's a sign that they are not alive and they should not be used.

BLAST FOR BODIES—A small dynamite blast (left) cuts away the dam of a cattle pond near Edgar Springs, Mo., where a C-47 crashed, killing seven persons. The U. S. Air Force today announced identification of four of the bodies recovered from the water. Included was a Pvt. Sproat of Salem, O. An eyewitness said the plane dived through a "black cloud" just before it smashed to pieces on the ground and slid into the water.

Reports Paint Spray Unit Stolen From Car

Andrew Malthaner, 506 Wayne street, reported to sheriff's deputies Wednesday that a painting spray unit was stolen from his car while it was parked at the GBU park Sunday. Malthaner valued the unit at $50.

Also reported yesterday was the theft of papers and title for a truck owned by the Pringle Trucking company of Mansfield. Karl Hannan of Raymond, O., driver of the truck, reported the theft.

PARTY NIGHT!

Friday night is party night at Arthur Murray's. All former students are cordially invited.

Two TB Officials To Attend Meeting

Mrs. Zora Weimer, 548 Wood street, representative director of the Richland county Tuberculosis and Health association, and Mrs. Margaret Adams, 40 Marion avenue, executive secretary, will attend a conference on tuberculosis control in Amherst next Tuesday.

Field representatives of tuberculosis associations will discuss case-finding and mass X-ray in TB control, as well as health education and financing tuberculosis work.

Group Goes To Columbus

Mansfield's reorganized Auxiliary State Highway Patrol of 56 members is expected to attend a two-day conference of the auxiliary in Columbus, Saturday and Sunday. Cpl. J. L. Bishop of the Mansfield patrol post, said today.

The conference is expected to attract some 1,400 auxiliary members, representing every county in the state. The Saturday sessions will be held at the Deshler-Wallick hotel while the Sunday sessions are scheduled for Memorial hall.

Theme of the fifth annual assembly will be "Security and Preparedness in Time of Disaster." A class of 26 new auxiliary members was graduated here Tuesday night at the McVey Post, American Legion. The Legion and the state patrol are co-sponsors of the auxiliary.

Sent to Jail for Threatening Wife

Ivan Stevens, 36, Roseland, was fined $10 and costs and sent to county jail yesterday on a previously suspended sentence for threatening his wife, Helen, in a menacing manner. Today's fine was on a similar charge.

Roy Harris, Galion, R. D. 1, paid $10 and costs on a speeding charge as did Catherine Coleman, Ashland.

You'll go for its big, reflecting finder—the flash and color pictures you can make—plus the fact that it's as simple to use as a box camera. And you get 12 black-and-white shots, 2¼ x 2¼, per roll of Kodak 620 Film; 9 color shots on a roll of Kodacolor Film.

West-Side Water Bills Go Out

Charges Increased By $26,294

Payments Due By April 15

Bills totaling $109,336 for west-side sewer and water users were mailed yesterday by Fred E. Lingafelter, secretary of garbage and water departments.

This is an increase of $26,294 over last year's charge for the same period.

The difference, Lingafelter said, was due to the increase in water rates in April last year and to the addition of new customers. He pointed out that the water department gets from 200 to 300 new customers annually.

Lingafelter reminded Mansfielders to be sure to bring their statements with them when they pay their bills, and if they send their checks by mail to enclose stubs.

All bills must be made paid by April 15 or a penalty of 10 per cent will be imposed.

Bills now being received by west-side residents include $87,186 for domestic and commercial users of water and $22,150 in sewer charges.

3 Dwellings To Be Built

Three building permits for homes estimated worth a total of $27,500 were issued Wednesday.

Edna Schmitt, 1165 Lexington avenue, received a permit to build a $7,500 brick veneer four-room residence with attached garage at 1151 Lexington avenue.

A $10,000 brick veneer dwelling will be erected by J. C. Rice, 20 Mansfield avenue. The four-room home will have an attached garage and will be built at 108 Reba avenue.

A five-room frame house, estimated at $10,000, will be built at 525 Glendale boulevard by M. R. Bemiller, 531 Glendale boulevard.

Stolen Car Locked, Abandoned In City

Police early yesterday found a stolen car, carefully locked and abandoned on South Diamond street.

The car, owned by Mrs. Naomi Zediker Watson, 85 Lind avenue, was stolen from 51 Blymyer avenue after 1:20 a. m., Wednesday, Mrs. Watson said.

Mrs. Watson told police she had left the car unlocked and the keys in the switch.

West-Side Water Bills Go Out

Charges Increased By $26,294

Payments Due By April 15

Bills totaling $109,336 for west-side sewer and water users were mailed yesterday by Fred E. Lingafelter, secretary of garbage and water departments.

This is an increase of $26,294 over last year's charge for the same period.

The difference, Lingafelter said, was due to the increase in water rates in April last year and to the addition of new customers. He pointed out that the water department gets from 200 to 300 new customers annually.

Lingafelter reminded Mansfielders to be sure to bring their statements with them when they pay their bills, and if they send their checks by mail to enclose stubs.

All bills must be made paid by April 15 or a penalty of 10 per cent will be imposed.

Bills now being received by west-side residents include $87,186 for domestic and commercial users of water and $22,150 in sewer charges.

3 Dwellings To Be Built

Three building permits for homes estimated worth a total of $27,500 were issued Wednesday.

Edna Schmitt, 1165 Lexington avenue, received a permit to build a $7,500 brick veneer four-room residence with attached garage at 1151 Lexington avenue.

A $10,000 brick veneer dwelling will be erected by J. C. Rice, 20 Mansfield avenue. The four-room home will have an attached garage and will be built at 108 Reba avenue.

A five-room frame house, estimated at $10,000, will be built at 525 Glendale boulevard by M. R. Bemiller, 531 Glendale boulevard.

Stolen Car Locked, Abandoned In City

Police early yesterday found a stolen car, carefully locked and abandoned on South Diamond street.

The car, owned by Mrs. Naomi Zediker Watson, 85 Lind avenue, was stolen from 51 Blymyer avenue after 1:20 a. m., Wednesday, Mrs. Watson said.

Mrs. Watson told police she had left the car unlocked and the keys in the switch.

TROOP PROJECT—Members of Girl Scout Troop 47 spent a busy afternoon this week packing boxes of clothing to be sent to needy girls overseas. Putting the clothes in boxes for shipment are, left to right, Kay English, Susie Hout, Marcia Pierce, Ann Kautz, and Donna Sharp.

The 22 members of Girl Scout Troop 47 completed a two-month project this week when they packed six boxes of girls' clothing to be sent overseas.

Each box contained a complete outfit for a girl nine or 10 years old. Included in the clothing were coats, hats, gloves, dresses, and undergarments.

The boxes will be sent to Girl Scout headquarters at Philadelphia and from there to needy children overseas.

Outlook Brightens For Pact Nations

AS LEADING envoys from nations in the North Atlantic community confer in Washington, it might be well to take a quick look at conditions in the countries they represent.

In its monthly survey, the Guaranty Trust company of New York asserts that Britain has made substantial progress since the end of the war. And this is confirmed by recent lifting of numerous rationing restrictions in the British Isles.

The British are now primarily concerned with stepping up their exports; but they are still counting on a donation of $940,000,000 from ERP, which means mostly the American taxpayer.

In Belgium unemployment is mounting, but industrial production is well above pre-war averages.

Canada's business outlook is reported stable. That is, while shipbuilding has declined a number of other industries are operating at "above capacity." Canada's principal need for greater development of its western districts is more hydro-electric power. Canada's foreign trade is still booming.

There seems to be a general, though gradual, trend toward economic recovery in France and Italy. The Scandinavian countries have not had so far to come on the road back.

Thus, over all, while hardly bright, the economic picture in the Atlantic community is not discouraging. At home we find ourselves readjusting to uninflated conditions.

In their conferences in Washington the diplomats must realize that, for the time being, the Russians have lost their greatest cold war weapon—the hope of economic chaos in the West. Also, the envoys must see that this is a time to plan carefully for mutual defense. It is not a time to expect the United States to play Santa Claus to the extent that we wreck our own economic balance.

It should be clear by now that this nation does not intend to let Russia's aggressive plans succeed. The immediate task is to implement our intention with the cooperation of our North Atlantic neighbors for their own safety as well as ours.

Time To Guard Against 'Bust'

APRIL 1—which is today—is ordinarily regarded as a "turning point" in the year—a time when business starts perking up after winter doldrums, when the weather is conducive to optimism, and when building really gets going for the summer and fall seasons.

On this particular April 1 there is the usual inclination toward cheerfulness but there is also an undercurrent of concern as to what the next six months will bring in the way of ending inflation without incurring danger of a severe depression.

According to a forecast by Kiplinger's Magazine, the amount and force of the pick-up this month will determine the course of general business for the next half year. Inflation forces are seen to be dying down, at least temporarily, and while prices are expected to remain high, it is unlikely that they will keep on going up—and some will drop.

Jobs are less plentiful than they were a few months ago, the magazine reports, and people are sticking to the jobs they have, and workers are working better. Unemployment is not expected to reach serious proportions, and it is predicted that strikes will be relatively few and not serious.

It is being recalled that it was at this period in 1929—just twenty years ago—that this country was in the midst of a boom, and speculative spree, which was leading inevitably to the disastrous depression that started with the stock market crash the following fall, and it will be hoped that lessons learned so expensively at that time will serve to prevent repetition of such a calamity.

Aguinaldo, Once Well-Known Name

LIKE an echo from the past comes the news that Emilio Aguinaldo has been celebrating his eightieth birthday. Half a century ago anything that Aguinaldo did was front page news. As leader of the Filipino rebels, who had revolted against Spain and had no more desire to be ruled by Uncle Sam, he commanded some sympathy among Americans, who disliked the idea of this nation depriving another of freedom.

Some called him the George Washington of the Filipinos, a title which derived some plausibility from his success in keeping the insurrection going for three years. Then Gen. Frederick Funston captured him in a successful raid, and the revolt collapsed.

Aguinaldo's later career did him less honor. He collaborated with the Japanese, and escaped heavy punishment probably only because of his past prominence in Philippine history.

British To Have National Parks

THE BRITISH are so progressive in many ways that it is astonishing to find them lagging behind in public undertakings which we take for granted. One such deficiency the Attlee government proposes to remedy by its new bill creating a system of national parks. British cities are well provided with city parks. But Great Britain lacks public access to areas of great natural beauty.

Americans might get an idea of the situation by imagining that our wonderful national park areas, such as the Yellowstone and Great Smoky parks, were reserved to private ownership instead of being public parks. Millions of tourists each year would miss much happiness and beauty.

According to the Boston Globe a ten-year-old in one of that city's progressive schools got only poor grades in arithmetic, geography and spelling but stood high in post-war planning.

What Some Other People Are Saying

JOHN W. SNYDER, secretary of the treasury: "I think we can be assured of continued prosperity. I see no reason to get panicky."

* * *

R. M. EVANS. Washington banker: "Since the present program of credit restraint was initiated, there has been an over-all abatement of inflationary pressures. The slowing down has been general."

* * *

ERNEST BEVIN, British foreign minister, who was greeted in New York by pickets bearing anti-British signs: "I used to picket other people myself. In my trade union days I organized lots of picket lines—on different lines, however. I have been on picket lines many times myself."

Raymond Moley's Analysis

Conditions Kill Truman's Proposal To Build Government Steel Plants

CHICAGO — The collective opinion of businessmen whom this reporter has seen on a trip through the Middle West and as far south as Houston is that the least-likely-to-succeed of President Truman's January brain children is the idea of putting the government into the steel business.

In fact, that child is dying right now of a combination of malnutrition and pre-natal malformation. The shortages of which the President complained in January are rapidly disappearing, and a full discussion of the subject has revealed the essential fallacy of the whole idea.

The President was merely adopting an old thesis which has had wide currency among left wingers for years and adding thereto a threat of nationalization.

It has been a part of the New Deal religion that the steel business operates on a principle of high prices induced by scarcity based upon semi-monoply.

The precise plan suggested by President Truman was launched in a speech early in December by C. Girard Davidson, assistant secretary of the interior. Davidson proposed that the Reconstruction Finance Corporation be authorized to grant loans for expansion to steel companies and, presumably, to people eager to go into the business. And in case these loans were not taken, a series of government plants would be launched.

Thus, the steel business was told either to accept loans for a purpose which they regarded as unnecessary or dangerous, or to meet competition financed out of taxpayers' money. The proposal has been ardently supported by labor leaders Walter Reuther and Philip Murray and by several members of Congress.

* * *

Disregarded Difficulties.

THE DEBATE which followed this proposal has been well summarized by Professor Marvin Barloon in the March Harvard Business Review. In the course of this judicial and highly informative article, the important point is made that, aside from the immensely important financial burden of such a scheme and the consequences that might be expected from it, there is the still more important question of timing.

Barloon says that even if it were to be conceded that there is need for steel beyond the present capacity of the business, a government project now would be too late as well as too early.

It is too late to meet the problem described by the critics of the steel industry in 1947 and 1948, because the inflation then experienced has run its course.

Moreover, if the government is to go into the business or even to force private manufacturers to expand, we cannot tell yet where such new plants should be built.

The primary problem before the steel industry is the source of future supplies of ore.

Four-fifths of the ore used by the industry comes from the Lake Superior district, and at the present rate of consumption those mines will be exhausted in 25 years.

About four-fifths of the ore from that region comes from the great open-pit mines such as Mesabi, which will be exhausted in 13 years.

If a war should come, these figures would have to be reduced still more. It is not clear where replacements will come from. Until that is determined, no one can tell where any new steel industry should be located; and in the steel business, location is a primary consideration.

Thus, the President's proposal comes down to the building of a new industry at an indeterminate by fabulous cost, at a place that no one can yet determine, and for a need that cannot effectively be justified.

Pacts Leave Russia Out

By THOMAS L. STOKES

WASHINGTON — The member of the family who indulges in occasional essays in this space on global generalities, with the apologetic timidity of the novice, was discussing the Atlantic Pact not long since with the female member of the family who fortunately has a refreshing way of getting right down to the essentials.

She looked up, finally, and inquired with what appeared to be sheer innocence:

"Whatever happened to the United Nations?"

Whatever did? A good question. Probably millions of others in this country and the world are asking it.

It is noted now that there is creeping into the official campaign on behalf of the Atlantic Pact the suggestion that this regional arrangement — which incidentally, takes in a rather diverse group of nations—may be the beginning of another United nations.

This regional pact, it is intimated, would be hooked up with the one we have already with Latin American "republics." Then there would be a Mediterranean Pact and a Pacific Pact and so on until, presto, we'll have another United Nations including practically everybody but Russia.

If Russia wants to come in after it gets all fixed up, then all right. But if she doesn't, and if she wants to start anything after she gets all hemmed in, then all the rest of us will be ready for her, and she won't dare.

At least that's the thesis. It may be sound, and again it may not, for there is a human tendency of those who get hemmed in to try desperately to break out.

* * *

War's Starting Place.

IT IS a good excuse, anyhow, as history demonstrates, in starting the last two world wars. Germany complained she was being hemmed in and so convinced her people.

It is good psychology for those who want to expand to say they are hemmed in and to add to that some flowery if illogical rhetoric about bringing together in one piece, under one cover, people who have a kinship of blood or race or ideals or economic interests or what-have-you, such as Germany did in Europe and Japan in Asia with her talk about an East Asia co-prosperity sphere, or whatever the phrase was.

Russia talks like that, too. Nor are we guiltless, for though we have no aims whatever of expansion, we speak glibly of bringing the "democracies" under our cover, and our pact is getting beyond such, for they are not too plentiful in the world today.

The point here is not the validity of all of this, of which there is very little, but that rulers have a way of making people believe it enough so they'll fight. A fact of human nature, not theory, is involved.

Worth contemplating now, from the place we have reached is the difference in purpose in the United Nations as originally conceived and that of the new series of regional alliances.

The U. N. was a world organization designed to achieve peace by removing economic and social injustices and maladjustments, which start wars, and by limiting armaments with which wars are fought. The object was bold and positive.

The aim of the projected alliances is to preserve peace by arming ourselves all over the world. It is defensive, negative, and old as man, and has proved futile for centuries. It can do nothing but start an arms race, and that is not only costly but dangerous.

That is the reason for the questions raised in Congress about the proposed program, supplementary to the Pact, to supply arms to Western Europe, while there is general acceptance of the Pact, itself.

The U. N. was a weak sort of vessel from the start. It got stalled with the veto, which permitted big power domination, and while achieveing something in the economic and social field, it has failed completely of two basic objectives. One is disarmament, including atomic control; the other an international police force to check aggression. For all this Russia is much to blame, but not altogether.

Washington Merry-Go-Round

President Truman Is 'Cross-Examined'

By DREW PEARSON

WASHINGTON — Now that James Forrestal is out as secretary of national defense, the story can be told of one of his last sessions with Truman and the man who was to take his place—Louis Johnson.

Though Forrestal had put up a tough fight against the appearance of being ousted from his job, he saw the handwriting on the wall and asked that there be a gradual changeover from him to his successor.

He wanted this to take place May 1, but at a luncheon with the President and Louis Johnson, he bowed to Truman's wish that it be April 1.

Furthermore, Forrestal volunteered to help Johnson in taking over the defense job and immediately placed important secret intelligence at his disposal.

At this luncheon meeting, it was agreed on the date when Johnson's appointment would be announced, and Johnson declared that until that time he was going to leave town.

"I don't want to be accused of leaking this news," he said. "And it's already begun to leak." He looked meaningly at the other two.

"There's been no leak from me," declared Truman.

"May one cross-examine the President of the United States?" asked Johnson.

The President smiled, and Johnson proceeded to do so.

"Didn't you tell General Eisenhower about this?" he asked.

"Oh, yes," admitted Truman, "but he won't tell a soul."

"And did you tell Senator Tydings?" asked Forrestal.

"Yes, I forgot about that," acknowledged the President, "but Tydings won't leak."

"Yeah?" said the new secretary of defense. "Well, it's leaking already. And that's why I'm leaving town."

Michigan Scandals.

IF THE justice department ever quits sitting on its hands and takes a real look at the Michigan political contributions, it will uncover some of the juiciest scandals in the USA. Furthermore, it will get to the bottom of the manner in which a lot of political money has been raised in this country.

The justice department has fuddy-duddied round with a semi-investigation, but the U.S. district attorneys in Michigan have been half scared of the big Michigan auto interests while higher-ups in the justice department have been busy chasing spies and running off in other directions.

Meanwhile, Senator Francis Myers of Pennsylvania, chairman of the Senate campaign investigating committee, has had some efficient probers busy in Michigan, and they have dug up evidence of widespread violation of the Corrupt Practices Act. Among other things they have found:

A cashier's check, Feb. 24, 1948, by the Barclay Deyo Corporation, a Detroit Ford Dealer, for $750 to the Wayne County Republican Finance committee.

Also a contribution by the Park Motor Sales Company, a Lincoln-Mercury dealer in Detroit, for $750, on Feb. 11, 1948, to the Wayne county Republican committee.

Also $953 to the same committee on March 12, 1948, by the Floyd Rice Sales and Service Co., another Ford Dealer in Detroit.

Not only are these contributions a violation of the Corrupt Practices Act, but Senate investigators are interested in ascertaining what connection there was between certain large gifts to the Republican machine and the non-payment of sales taxes by certain auto dealers.

Tito Wants Help.

THIS may be denied, but Marshal Tito of Yugoslavia has appealed to the United States for American artillery, communications equipment and spare parts for his air force. Tito has told the American Embassy in Belgrade he fears a Soviet pincers attack on Yugoslavia from Albania and Bulgaria where the Russians are concentrating military forces . . . . The U. S. Embassy has passed along Tito's urgent request—with the postscript that it has ironclad evidence that an average of two Russian ships each day have unloaded military equipment at the Albanian port of Durazzo for the past three weeks.

* * *

Far Eastern Tinderbox.

SECRETARY of State Acheson has sent secret instructions to all American diplomats in the Far East telling them to be extra careful to avoid any action which might be interpreted as an insult to the yellow race . . . Conditions throughout the Far East are so tense that Acheson fears some isolated incident might touch off a disastrous race riot . . . The tense situation is partly because of communist propaganda, partly because of Western blunders such as the Dutch attack on Indonesia. Communists have been hammering away at the theme that the white men from the West are trying to keep them in a backward state in order to exploit them . . . Acheson wants American diplomats to expose the Russian propaganda line when they can, but above all to be careful in all behavior.

Assignment: America

Almost Self-Sustaining

By INEZ ROBB

KING RANCH, Kingsville, Texas — If the King Ranch could only produce caviar and Scotch whisky, it would be practically self-sustaining.

The ranch still weaves its own saddle blankets (and some of its rugs) from wool grown carded and spun on the place. It rigs its own saddles. It braids its own bridles and cinches. It maintains its own blacksmith shops and its own repair shops for a raft of motorized equipment and vehicles.

Perhaps no other American ranch combines so many old-fashioned operations with ultra modern methods. It is a strange mixture that gives a leisurely patina to the bustling activity of the big place.

Despite the American pace set by the Kleberg brothers, Bob and Dick, sr., who manage the ranch, owned by themselves and their sisters, it is permeated with the air of "manana" set by the army of Mexican-American vaqueros and laborers who live and work on it.

Many of the Latin-American workers have been on the place for two and three generations. Some are descendants of the first Mexicans who came to work on the ranch in its earliest days almost a century ago.

All the Klebergs speak Spanish as fluently as English, for Spanish is the working language of the ranch. Many of the vaqueros still do not speak English.

Perhaps it is this factor, as well as the interdependent loyalties of the Klebergs and their 500 Mexican-American employes through two and three generations, that gives the ranch its feudal air. That, and the old-fashioned handicrafts still practiced here.

But even these handicrafts are practiced in a typically King Ranch manner. The spinning wheels used on the ranch, for example, are made here and made—of all things—from the wheels of Ford cars!

However, if some operations are still picturesque and old-fashioned, ultra modernity does crop up in unexpected places. I was born on a cattle ranch, but until I came here I was not hep to the fact that the best lasso is now made of nylon.

The King Vaquero still uses a western saddle, still sports high-heeled boots and still wears heavy leather chaps as of yore. But he ropes the King Ranch dogie with a nylon lasso.

The King Ranch legends are so many and so picturesque that I am afraid the ranch at first glance doesn't appear half as glamorous as it should.

Even the first glimpse of the big Santa Gertrudis ranch house is a let down. It bears no resemblance to Scarlet O'Hara's old home. The architecture is early Woodrow Wilson Spanish.

* * *

Principally For Guests.

NOT UNTIL I got inside the house did I realize how huge it is, with its thick walls built in 1916 to withstand both heat and Mexican bandits; with its cool stone floors, its tremendous fire places and its two-story stained glass window made by Tiffany's when the house was built.

The rugs are expecially fascinating, whether those woven of pale cream and brown wool on the ranch, or the magnificent rugs expecially woven in Austria for the new house after World War I. The motif of both groups is the King ranch brand, the running W.

The big house is now maintained principally as a guest house to shelter such diverse wayfarers as Lord and Lady Halifax and Mrs. Will Rogers.

Out of deference to its guests. The Klebergs sometimes eat steaks at ten meals in the span of a single week. When they cannot stand the sight of another luscious, 4-inch sirloin, they go on a fish binge.

It was just my luck to arrive in the midst of a fish revolt.

Steak, steak everywhere on the hoof, and not a bite to eat. I could have bawled!

Maybe they should have started with a simple case like issues between two persons before attempting ten tongue treaty translations.

But there's one thing about those boys. They've discovered that they're warm friends between elections.

The Bees Are Dead

By CALVIN A. BYERS

IT WAS sad to find, when I opened one hive, today, that all the bees were dead. That last cold snap did it! There they were, in piles—dead bees between the brood combs . . . and all the honey I had fed them gone.

It has been a hard winter, because there have been frequent warm days when bees are active. At such times they eat more. One day recently, the bees entertained us royally with their antics in the new sawdust pile where the boys had buzzed kitchen wood.

They swarmed above the sawdust heap reconnoitering, then landed and proceeded to roll and frolic, rubbing their bodies along fibrous wood as though they were crazy with delight. Returning to the hive, their legs and bodies were dusted with yellow—were they getting pollen from the wood, I wonder?

Three different times I poured honey into the hive, and watched them eat, as though half starved. But there was honey left, so they must have frozen this time.

I grieved as I saw them, there, dead and still on this warm spring day when they should have been active and busy at rearing a brood. It seems I am not much good as a bee man.

* * *

THE best man with bees that I knew used to keep them in his cellar in winter, hauling them there on a wheelbarrow that he had contrived for the purpose. One room was partitioned off from the rest of his basement, and there was a glass in the door through which he could see the thermometer without entering.

He claimed that a temperature of about 45 degrees, continuously, was best. At that temperature the bees remain quieter, and eat less honey during the winter, yet come out in the spring strong enough to reproduce and build up a good working hive.

For this method, it is necessary to have a well ventilated evenly heated cellar. Another neighbor kept bees for many years in the attic . . . and still another has two hives in his greenhouse. Has any reader a suggestion or an experience in wintering bees that might be helpful to all of us?

2 Germans Saved From Gallows

General Clay OK's Commutations

FRANKFURT — (UP) — Gen. Lucius D. Clay yesterday commuted to life imprisonment the death sentences of two more Malmedy massacre participants whose guilt was established by evidence obtained "improperly."

Reviewing the death sentences of 12 Germans accused of machine gunning unarmed American prisoners during the Battle of the Bulge, the American military governor has confirmed five and reduced five to life imprisonment with two cases to go.

Clay said there was no doubt that SS (elite guard) Lt. Erich Rumph and Cpl. Ernst Goldschmidt were guilty and that it was "with reluctance" that he overruled the death penalty against Rumph.

But he said that all witnesses against the lieutenant later repudiated their testimony and contended that it was obtained by the prosecution through force and duress.

Goldschmidt's case was similar, the military governor ruled.

Garden peas require cool weather for growing and should be planted early.

Philadelphia Symphony Set For Trans-ocean Concert Tour

PHILADELPHIA — (AP) — Eugene Ormandy and his 110 member Philadelphia orchestra will make a trans-ocean dream come true May 13 when they embark for a concert tour in England and Scotland.

Not since 1930 had a United States orchestra crossed the ocean for a concert. For 48-year-old Ormandy it will be "the fulfillment of a dream that has been mine" since he became conductor of the Philadelphia orchestra 11 years ago.

"The people of Europe have been begging us for years to present concerts in their countries," said the soft-spoken native Hungarian, "but always there has been something in the way."

And why, Mr Ormandy, is there such a great demand for American concerts in Europe?

"Well, a great deal of the demand stems from the magnificent performances of the New York Philharmonic when Toscanini led them through Europe in 1930. They received an unheard of reception."

"There is something lacking in the concerts of the European symphonies," Ormandy explained. "Each orchestra in each country is made up of native musicians. They act as a sort of government symphony and opera company. Their music is national in character. It is, you might say, restricted in its expression."

"But here," he went on, "in this wonderful country, there is no National music. In our orchestra we have men and women from nearly every country in Europe. There is no restriction. You might say that the music of this country is a truly international music."

LOSES 40 POUNDS WITHOUT DIETING

Elmwood Place Lady Grateful To Rennel

Mrs. H. Zureich, 5640 Prosser Ave., Elmwood Pl., Ohio writes, "With the approval of my doctor I started taking Rennel a short time ago, and since have lost 40 pounds. I feel much, much better and think it is the most wonderful way to lose weight, as I did not have to diet or starve myself."

Imagine, eat plenty and lose weight with this simple yet effective amazing home recipe. After purchasing a bottle of Rennel from your druggist pour the contents into a pint bottle and add enough grapefruit juice to fill bottle. Take two tablespoonsful twice a day. That's all there is to it. No diets to complicate your meal planning. No expensive vitamins to fortify your system from weakness while going without food for you can eat normally. If the very first bottle doesn't show the simple, easy way to lose pounds of bulky fat and help regain slender, more youthful curves—if reducible excess fat doesn't seem to disappear almost like magic just return the empty bottle to the manufacturer for your money back. Don't be switched to another product, insist on and be sure to get the genuine Rennel. —Adv.

MISS MARGARET FIEDLER HONORED WITH SHOWER

Mrs. Boyd Stull Hostess to Nine at Miscellaneous Shower Held In Ashland.

THE FIRST in a series of showers for Miss Margaret Fiedler, bride-elect, was held last evening at the home of Mrs. Boyd Stull, Eastern avenue, Ashland. Nine guests were in attendance for the miscellaneous shower.

Bridge was the diversion of the evening at two tables. When the scores were tallied, prizes were awarded to Mrs. Henry Konves and Miss Dorothy Scott, who presented them to the honoree.

Mrs. Stull placed floral arrangements of spring flowers throughout the house. The guests were seated at a long table appointed with pastel colors. Spring flowers of yellow and white centered the table. Blue candles, placed in crystal candelabra, lighted the table.

Miss Fiedler is the bride-elect of Richard B. Schwab. The couple will exchange nuptial vows April 23 in St. John's Evangelical and Reformed church with the Rev. John Melchert officiating for the 3:15 informal ceremony.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry R. Fiedler, 385 Overlook road, are the bride-elect's parents, and Mr. and Mrs. Clyde V. Schwab, 151 Gibson avenue, are Mr. Schwab's parents.

Mrs. Frank Mengert, sister of the bride-elect, will serve as matron of honor during the ceremony. Bridesmaids will be Miss Phyllis Schwab, sister of Mr. Schwab, and Mrs. Thomas Scott, a close friend of the couple.

Best man for Mr. Schwab will be Carl Tracey, of Zanesville, a close friend. Guests will be escorted to their pews by Frank Mengert, brother-in-law of Miss Fiedler, and Thomas Scott, a friend.

Couple To Be Wed Easter

Twenty-three close friends learned recently of the engagement and approaching marriage of Miss Ethel Kreger, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Kreger, R. D. 1, Mansfield, to Ross Stiteler, son of Mr. and Mrs. George Stiteler, 26 Kohler ave.

The announcement party was in the form of a miscellaneous shower at North Lake park pavilion with Mrs. George Stiteler, mother of Mr. Stitele., Mrs. Leo Stiteler, Mrs. George Stiteler jr., and Miss Thelma Rupanovic as hostesses.

The evening was spent socially with each guest working a puzzle of paper chickens, ducks and rabbits, with the announcement, "Ross and Ethel-April 17" written on them.

Refreshments were served from tables appointed in the bridal theme. Spring flowers centered the tables, and tall lighted tapers were placed at either end.

The couple will exchange nuptial vows Easter Sunday in the First Methodist church with the Rev. Charles W. Stoneburner officiating for the formal ceremony. The ceremony will be read at 2 o'clock.

Out-of-town guests present were Miss Leola Riddle, Miss Laura Hawk and Miss Betty Pollo all of Ontario.

Miss Kreger attended Ontario high school. Mr. Stiteler attended Mansfield schools and is employed at the Westinghouse Electric corporation.

Towel Purchase Is Investment

Regard the purchase of towels as a major investment, because towels must survive more strenuous, and more consistent wear than any other article of your new household linen.

When you purchase new towels, hold the towel up to your eyes and if tiny, regular pinpoints of light show through, the weave is tight and good. Weak, open spots are the dead giveaway of a porly woven towel.

Buy towels in a wide variety of sizes. CHARM suggest to the new housewife — large ones for the man of the family, middle-sized ones for your own bath, and hand towels for minor clean-up operations. Because of pound rates at the laundry, it's smart to use small towels whenever you can. Large towels are more costly to send out, and harder to launder at home.

To distinguish once and for all between towels, buy them in harmonizing shades. Before you use your new towels, launder them to increase their absorbency. Thereafter, wash them in water as hot as your hands can stand. Shake towels dry, never iron them says CHARM.

Here Are Some Lenten Dishes To Vary Your Everyday Meals

By ALICE DENHOFF

NO need to be dull or heavy or humdrum in Lenten menus.

Make the meals light-hearted, healthful and hearty with all sorts of extras such as a curry of shrimp and green beans. To serve 5-6, drain a No. 2 can whole string beans (2 c.), reserving liquor. Strain a No. 1 can shrimp (one c.), rinse shrimp with cold water. Melt 2 tbsp. butter in saucepan; add 2 small chopped onions, and cook slowly until browned. Take from heat, add 2 tbsp. flour, and stir until well blended. Add 2 tsp. curry powder, tsp. salt, ¼ tsp. pepper. Add bean liquor and one c. water. Cook until slightly thickened, stirring constantly; then add beans; mix well. Add shrimp; cook for 3 min. over medium heat. Serve with boiled rice.

Banana Rice Savory zipped up with a Savory Cheese Sauce would add up to an interesting dish at any time of year. To serve 8, start off with the sauce. Melt 2 tbsp. butter, add 3 tbsp. flour, tsp. salt, dash of pepper, tsp. prepared mustard and ¼ tsp. Worcestershire sauce. Stir in slowly, 2 c. milk. Add one c. grated American cheese; cook, stirring constantly, until sauce is smooth and thickened. Makes about 2 c. sauce.

To prepare the savory, mix together 3 c. boiled rice and ½ c. savory cheese sauce. Spread over bottom of 10 x 6 x 2-inch baking dish. Peel 3 firm, ripe bananas, cut crosswise in halves, then cut each half lengthwise. Arrange pieces, cut side down, on top of rice. Brush bananas with melted butter, and sprinkle with salt to taste. Bake in 375 F. for 10 to 15 min., or until bananas are tender (easily pierced with fork). Pour remaining cheese sauce over bananas and sprinkle with paprika.

GOOD SALAD

A good salad goes well with any meal, and here is a particularly nice one with an excellent dressing. In a big bowl, mix torn leaves of lettuce, chicory, romaine or watercress. Add ½ c. diced celery, tomatoes cut in eighths and one c. grapefruit sections. Sprinkle with celery seed and chopped chives. Diced avocado may also be added. Toss with dressing.

To prepare dressing mix tsp. each salt, dry mustard, granulated sugar and paprika, also ½ tsp. catsup. Beat well with hand beater or electric beater at high speed, then add one c. salad oil, tbsp. at a time beating well after each addition. Add gradually ¼ c. vinegar, beating all the while. Add ¼ c stuffed olives, chopped. Chill. Makes about 1½c.

WINESAP APPLE PUDDING WITH MACAROONS AND NUTS. Place a layer of applesauce in a buttered pudding dish. Sprinkle with ground almonds or pecans. Dot with butter and sprinkle with crushed macaroons. Add a little water and bake in a 400 degree F oven, 15 to 20 minutes.

Orange blossoms remain the favorite floral motif carving on matrimonial bands. Sunflowers are considered lucky, and sentimental brides prefer heart designs. You can get gold bridal bands with an open Bible in rare white palladium as the sole design. Initials of bride and groom are engraved on the precious leaves together with the wedding date.

Horoscope

By GENEVIEVE KEMBLE

For Saturday, April 2

THE weekend might profitably be devoted to seeking relaxation, diversion and a period of letting down after serious, arduous and taxing occupations, in which physical and mental energies may be benefited by postponing sustained and too persistent efforts. Time out for recharging mental, nervous and physical batteries would be advisable. Social, romantic, domestic and cultural festivities offer "escape."

For the Birthday

Those whose birthday it is may find it profitable to permit major objectives to "incubate" in a period of logical, methodical and systematic development, while the energies and programs center on securing personal prestige, aid from important persons whose solid cooperation is imperative to future issues. Security and prestige in the social, professional and more conservative contacts of life have tangible value in promoting so-called "big deals." Hospitality has power and personality assured potency tactfully manipulated as an asset.

A child born on this day should have its inherent social and professional graces and powers cultivated in supplement to its serious conservative attitudes.

Color Tips Given for Decorator

By ELEANOR ROSS

At a recent conference on color an interesting contribution, helpful to the amateur decorator, came from a famous firm whose paints and synthetic products play a major role in public places throughout the country. While the average home does not in any way compare in a decorating sense with a hospital room, a restaurant, a tea room, a hotel, there are certain aspects that are common, because basic principles are involved.

In choosing colors for a dining room, for instance, homemakers might bear in mind that among light colors, peach, orange, red-orange, clear yellow and pale green are the most appetizing, and in deep tones, brown, tan, deep green and blue. A long history of decorating public eating places is the substance for this statement. The report on "appetite appeal in color" takes cognizance of the curious psychological fact that certain colors appear to be appetizing, and it states that yellow-green is distasteful and the least desirable of all.

For a room that is furnished with dull pieces or is really poorly furnished, dull walls won't tend to obscure the furnishings. But bright walls will take the doldrums right out of the furniture, and indeed, right out of the room, and give the whole place a cheerful, pleasant look.

A dressing room may be painted a bluish-green to flatter the complexion. For when looking at any one color the human eye reacts by bringing up a strong after-image of the opposite or complementary color.

Reduced to decorating terms for the home, this fact may be used to advantage by featuring a color through its complement such as blue-green for the soft orange-pink tones of the human complexion. It is the same principle that impels one to select a blue platter rather than an ivory one for an orange-frosted cake.

Dark wood surfaces that reflect little light are out of place in a kitchen with white walls that reflect about 85 per cent of the light. No colored surface in view in a given area should be more than five times brighter than any other surface in the room since glare and excessive contrasts tire the eye.

CRESTLINE — Miss Barbara Beck, assisted by Miss Loretta Bauer, Miss Mary and Miss Margery Poffenbaugh, honored Miss Martha Walter, bride-elect, at a shower Saturday night at the Beck home.

Contests and games were the diversion of the evening with prizes going to Mrs. Ralph Shearer and Miss Carol Stover. They presented the awards to the honoree.

Miss Walter was given her gifts in a large basket which formed a centerpiece for the table when luncheon was served. The appointments were carried out in an orchid and green color scheme which the bride-elect will use for her wedding.

Miss Walter will wed George Stover, West Main street, Shelby, in an open church ceremony in Trinity Evangelical Lutheran church Easter Sunday. The nuptials will be spoken at 3:30 o'clock.

Ulta-wide wedding bands were first introduced in 1937, and now 50 per cent sold are in that style. Many reach to the first knuckle, are elaborately carved and are studded with diamonds or other important gems. Some are four-toned, contrasting three different colors of gold-pink, yellow and green-with-brilliant white platinum or palladium.

Scandinavian lovers introduced the vogue of double ring ceremonies.

Second Half of Life Depends On Reading Signs Correctly

NEW YORK — (AP) —For more than half of you who read this, the second 40 years of life has begun.

You may be in your prime, or past it, but either way, what you are in the latter second 40's will depend on how you read certain signs.

Seven of these are described by Dr. Edward J. Stieglitz of Washington, New York and Bethesda and Rockville, Md., in a report to the Smith, Kline and French laboratories conference on aging.

The first sign is reaction time. When you are injured, whether by germs or autos, your body reacts less rapidly and less vigorously.

Second sign: The body repairs itself more slowly. Convalescences are likely to be prolonged.

Third sign: From ages 8 to 80, temperature, pulse rate, sugar, protein, calcium and chloride in the blood are about the same. But after 40 there is a drop in the body's ability to maintain this constancy. So you lose some of your ability "to take it."

Fourth sign: Weight. It becomes more important to get your weight to the right level.

Fifth sign: There is a change in the effects of some of the drugs you may take. Barbiturates, the common sleeping pills, are likely to confuse and excite the aged, to cause forgetfulness, unsteadiness and fears.

Sixth sign: Don't insist upon abrupt changes in habits.

Seventh sign: Chronic illness progresses more slowly in its inroads. This, says Dr. Stieglitz, is the one item on the credit side of the ledger.

Night Life In Soviet Germany Turns Calendar Back to 20's

By TOM REEDY

LEIPZIG, GERMANY — (AP) — Anybody who can Charleston is an immediate hit in the night life of Soviet Germany.

The annual Leipzig fair uncorked a holiday atmosphere here, deep in the Russian zone, and turned back the calendar to the roaring 20's for U. S. visitors.

After 12 years of Hitler and almost four years of the Russians, the eastern German is about two decades out of date. Dancing in the night spots reminds one of the postage stamp floors, dubious booze and fancy prices of the prohibition era in the United States.

All the Germans dance the old-fashioned "toddle." And they all try to dance at once. You don't see any Russians in their night clubs, except a few in civilian clothing on secret police duty. The "no fraternization" ban of the Russian army isn't just talk.

What the girls do for evening clothes is the best they can. They improvise, here, pin up there, and come out in a pathetically good way. The men don't make it so well. In one night club the only man with matching coat and pants turned out to be the communist proprietor.

The beer is good and packs a wallop. The German cognac beats a lot of the dubious fluid that poses under fancy names elsewhere. For twenty east marks a German can have a time for himself. Of course, this is three days pay for him. An east mark in terms of dollar is hard to calculate but the nearest guess is about seven cents.

How American cigarets work this deep into the Soviet zone is a caution, but many Germans are smoking them. Cigarets are unrationed but those on sale are either German or Bulgarian or something not so good.

The waiters spot a "foreigner" immediately and he gets excellent service, for American cigarets, of course.

In Wyoming there are only 275 settlements, 151 of which have a population of 100 or less.

POPULAR?

You'll be twice as popular after a few dance lessons at Arthur Murray's, 26½ S. Main.

Finds a Fact This Morning Will Be a Superstition By Nightfall

ANYBODY IN THE MARKET for a second-hand education?

I would like to trade my education in for a new one, just as you trade in a broken down car for a later model.

Because I sure am not getting the intellectual mileage from my old education that I used to. It has turned out to be a four-cylinder job in an eight-cylinder world.

I grew up in what was supposed to be the most widely educated generation in history. But it appears now that practically everything I learned was wrong. What I was taught was true is now regarded as false.

Today it is hard to believe in anything, because a thing that is accepted as a fact in the morning may be regarded as a superstition by evening.

Let us take a simple subject like the human body, something every normal person has. But how shall you take care of this marvelous machine? Well, what they teach you to do today they'll probably tell you to shun tomorrow.

At the time I started in kindergarten the medical profession had ceased recommending long horseback rides as a cure for tuberculosis.

But I was told, on the teacher's word of honor, that a clean tooth never decays. Everybody today knows darn well it will if it wants to.

The school dentist showed us the right way to brush our teeth—side-ways. A couple of years later we were taught to use a rotary motion. Now my dentist is in favor of brushing up and down. And I am looking forward to a day, coming fast, when I can avoid all doubt in the matter by taking 'em out and soaking 'em in a glass.

Take spinach. Everybody was sure in the days when I played marbles that spinach was the best source of iron outside the Mesabi range. Now practically everybody knows better. People are reduced to eating spinach for pleasure.

★

Take mold. I was told mold was poisonous. Now if you don't swallow mold three times a day —in the form of penicillin— people get the idea there's nothing wrong with you.

Take bed rest. Remember when they kept you in the hospital for two weeks after an appendectomy? Today they hardly let you stay in the hospital long enough to warm the sheets. Tomorrow they may take your appendix out while you're standing up — during your lunch hour, so you won't have to miss half a day's work.

The benefits of sunshine, fresh air and exercise — faiths of my childhood — have been debunked as over-rated. I used to believe people worried and grew thin. No, they worry and grow fat. They used to say, "eat hearty." Now they say that if you do you'll become overweight and won't live as long.

The man who as a boy took sulphur and molasses for spring fever has a son who gulps vitamin pills for anemia and a grandson who is being given thyroid tablets for low-blood pressure.

As a result of all these changes, a man no longer can afford to do anything to his body without running the risk of being out-of-date before his last wonder pill has been digested. About the only safe thing to believe in is the circulation of the blood.

Walter Winchell

Big New York Law Firms Sweat As Wire-Tapping Probe Begins

MANY OF THE town's most conservative and dignified law firms (supposedly above such things) which have used the wire-tapping services (of Broady) are sweating blood. For fear their distinguished names will be mentioned in the coming probe of his undercover activities. (Oh, Daddy, I can hardly wait!)

The cops know the murderer in the Langford slaying (at the Hotel Marguery) but they have a good reason for not arresting him.

Memos of a Midnighter: Julie Wilson, the star at the St. Regis, wants her army of stage-door Johnnys to know all the items linking her with This or That Guy are pure bunk. She says nearly every column married her to someone in the past week. . . . The Wm. Dolls have mended matters. . . . MGM people wish they could find out for sure if L. B. Mayer has been resigned or not. We hear yes. For 5 years, same position. . . . Isn't Ralph Bellamy (star of "Detective Story") readying his 4th merger to a lass named Murphy? Long-time romance.

Most big swank hotels are featuring dinners (a la table-d'hote) but they call them "Before Curtain Dinners" because the other "Sounds so cheap, you know." The fee is from $' to $5, instead of the $12 when you order a la carte.

The days of the big checks are over. . . . Items-I-Will-Never-Believe: That Bob Sylvester (News drama desk) allegedly wears a derby to the B'way First-Nights.

Manhattan Moochers: Harry, the Heartug, the one-legged mendicant outside the Pennsy Station. He arouses your sympathy and coins by offering to carry your bags despite his missing shaft. . . . .The musician-beggars who play the score as you exit from the musicals, making you feel like a heel if you don't tip them.

The panhandler with the Confederate flag sewed up his sleeve. Does very well with Southern visitors. Never been outta N. Y. in his life.

Novelette: They've been Adam-and-Eve'ing for nearly a decade. . . . No romance. . . . Just real devoted friends and "daaah-leeengs" . . . "I'm so worried," she told him. "Can't get a job, and I'm so in debt. Can't pay my rent and I haven't slept for two weeks worrying about it." . . . "Don't worry about it," he said, looking around the room, "I'll take care of it tonight."

And he kept his word, although he didn't intend it to be funny. . . . An hour after he took her home a bellboy came to her door with an envelope from Her Friend. . . . It contained sleeping pills.

OHIO FORECAST: Cloudy, cold and windy with snow flurries in north and occasional rain in south portion today, clearing and a little colder tonight. Saturday fair and a little warmer.

Burial Plans Changed

Services for Floyd A. Ferguson jr., 29-year-old Mansfielder who died when his light plane crashed Wednesday night on the Baltimore and Ohio railroad tracks, east of Willard, will be held at 1 p. m. Saturday at the Wolford funeral home.

Rev. Charles Stoneburner, pastor of the First Methodist church and Rev. Samuel U. J. Peard, rector of the Grace Episcopal church will have charge of the rites. Place of burial was changed today from the receiving vault at the Mansfield cemetery to Memorial Park.

The youthful business executive who was manager of the Mansfield office of the Automatic Laundry Distributors, Inc., 233 Park avenue east, was believed to have become lost in a heavy fog in the Willard area Wednesday night.

Mr. Ferguson was district manager for the company for a five-state area, including Ohio, Michigan, Indiana, Pennsylvania and Kentucky. The local office will be closed all day Saturday.

Post Office Gets Stamp Machine

Available In Lobby Day and Night

Mansfielders now can buy stamps at the post office 24 hours a day, as long as they have a supply of nickels and dimes.

An automatic postage stamp dispensing machine was installed in the post office Wednesday which delivers one, two, or three-cent stamps after the proper change is placed in the machine's coin slots.

Curtis L. Ford, acting postmaster, said the stamp robot would cut down the jam at the stamp window during rush hours andlalso would be of a great help to persons wanting to buy stamps after the windows at the post office have closed.

For a nickel, the patron gets five one-cent stamps, for a dime, five two-cent stamps, and for a nickel and a dime, five three-cent stamps out of the machine.

Ford warned patrons of the gadget that only nickels and dimes will work in the slots and that it does not make change as some machines in other post offices do.

Since the stamp window closes at 5:30 p. m., Ford predicted the machine would be a great boon to persons desiring stamps during the night. The lobby of the post office is open 24 hours a day.

Council Elects Staff

Mrs. Charles Gunder Heads County Group

Mrs. Charles Gunder, of Mansfield, R. D. 6, was elected president of the Richland County Home Demonstration council to serve for the next year.

Others elected were Mrs. John Humbert, vice president; Mrs. Thomas Schwartz, secretary; and Mrs. Willard Darling, assistant secretary.

The council, meeting at the courthouse Wednesday afternoon, decided to raise money to contribute to a state college scholarship fund for a girl interested in home demonstration work.

The 23 members brought clothing which is to be sent to a family in Poland. The group last summer sent clothing to the same family. A letter of appreciation was received by the group.

A committee to present a plan for an exhibit of the county council at the State fair was appointed. On the committee are Mrs. Carl Dill, Mrs. Charles Oberlin, Ms. Mark Huston and Mrs. Schwartz.

Mowry Services Set Saturday

Funeral services for Wilson Clyde Mowry, 73, of 150 West First street, will be held at the Wolford funeral home at 3 p. m. Saturday in charge of Rev. Carveth P. Mitchell, pastor of the First Lutheran church. Burial will be in Mansfield cemetery.

County Orders Road Repair Program

ROBOT SELLS STAMPS—Joseph Timmer, 300 Fairlawn avenue, buys 50 three-cent stamps from the Mansfield post office's new stamp vending machine which has been installed in the post office lobby. Timmer said it is a handy gadget when the stamp window has closed for the day. Although the windows at the post office close at 5:30 p. m., the new machine will be on duty 24 hours a day.

Senior Players Win Big Crowd's Praise

By NITA BRANSON

A capacity crowd last night saw 10 seniors present "Personal Appearance" on the stage at Senior high auditorium and decided it was one of the best performances ever given there.

The play, straight and simple comedy, was directed by Earl Heasley and Miss Martha Eckert, dramatics and speech teachers at Senior high.

Timing of the play was excellent and the acting would have done justice to a group of adult thespians. The seniors did the comedy straight. Even the love scenes were funny.

There are no minor characters in the play, and there was no "minor" acting last night. Even Philip Pendleton, who took the part of the chauffer, gave his role importance.

As leads, Audrey McCoy and David Stanton were good. Miss McCoy, who took the role of the spoiled, capricious and difficult darling of Hollywood, had the most difficult role but she handled it well, neither over - emphasizing, as she might easily have done, or underplaying the part.

Betty Erickson, as the simple country girl who loves the hero, and Jean A. Robinson, as the gray-haired auntie who prevents Carol Arden, the actress, from enticing Chester Norton, the hero, from the "home nest", gave excellent impersonations.

Perhaps the most natural performance was given by Charles Brown as Gene Tuttle, the personal relations director who has been hired by the actress's husband to keep her from having too many flirtations while on tour. His every line had a punch and Brown delivered the punch with excellent timing.

WIN PRAISE

Tina Taylor as Gladys Kelcey, the movie-crazy village girl, Gizella Knefely as the proud, haughty mother who can't forget her "better days", Harry McCune as the "simple country bumpkin" and filling station attendent in love with Gladys, and Jane Van Tilburg as the maid, were fine in their parts.

Between acts last night the Senior high orchestra played selections under the direction of J. Merton Holcombe.

Senior committee members who had charge of off-stage arrangements included: Barbara Bowles, prompter; Susan Stoodt, chairman, Gloria Weimer, Betty Bauman, Mary Alice Biddle, Patricia Jackson, Robert Mathews, Richard Eliot and Merilyn Blackburn, properties; Douglass Black, chairman, Jean Maurer, Gilbert Templeton, Shirley Reed and Margie Goodman, advertising;

Despina Nickas, chairman, Norma McCally and Virginia Brownfield, were in charge of the programs. Emily Stephan chairman, James Morris, Marilyn Klee and Shirley Hill, supervised ticket sales.

Another group of Senior class girls, wearing evening gowns, were the ushers. They included: Anne Shawber, chairman, Charlot Hayward, Ellen Bromfield, Delores Balliet, Jane Hughes, Elsie Hager, Barbara Blahnik, Carmella Greer, Marilyn Bell; Sara Scott, Betty Gorsuch an Gracann Fogle.

Surviving are three brothers. Marvin, Harvey and Paul of Mansfield; two sisters, Mrs. Lee Sams of Mansfield and Mrs. Raleigh Tranum of Arkansas.

Services will be held at the Wappner funeral home at 10 a. m. Monday conducted by Rev. Ben F. Hagelbarger, pastor of the First Christian church. Friends may start calling at the funeral home tonight.

YELLOW IN THE SNOW—

The bright yellow of spring splashed across Mansfield lawns today despite the snow flurries. Daffodils nodded their golden heads at motorists and the forsythia bushes brightened lawns. In the woodlots near the city spring beauties are beginning to appear and there soon will be dozens of other flowers to please the Sunday afternoon hiker.

Gale of Palo Alto, Calif; two daughters, Dr. Jeanne Korljan of Phoenix, Ariz., and Mrs. Marjorie Hassinger of Mansfield; a sister, Mrs. Eva Leonard of Maple Plains, Minn., and five grandchildren.

155 Miles Due For Patching

Orders New Power Shovel

Patching of the 155 miles of county bituminous roads will get under way April 18, County Engineer Walter E. Rusk said today. The work is to be completed by May 21, if the weather is good.

County commissioners authorized purchase of 775 tons of bituminous material costing $5,735 for the work. The material will be purchased from the Mansfield Asphalt Paving company, and paid for with auto license and gas tax funds.

Many of the county's "blacktopped" or major roads were damaged by the freezing and thawing during the winter. Damage was not as heavy as last year, however.

Rusk said an average of five tons of material will be applied to each mile of bituminous highway.

Rusk said the buying of materials was lighter this time because of purchases of badly-needed equipment for the department. He said the department had to buy new equipment.

FIX MAJOR ROUTES

Among the roads where work will be done are these "blacktop" routes: Bowman street road, Amoy-Pavonia, Plymouth-Springmill, Lexington - Ontario, Little Washington, Pleasant Valley, Newville-Hastings, Bellville-Johnsville, Windsor and Windsor-Pavonia roads.

County commissioners authorized purchase by the county engineering department of a new power shovel, costing $11,252, from the Hanson Clutch and Machinery company of Tiffin. Delivery date is May 1, according to the commissioners' resolution.

Purchase from the Hanson company was made by the commissioners on recommendation of the county engineer in accordance with a price quotation submitted by that firm. The purchase will be made from automobile license and gasoline tax funds. The new shovel will replace a 1936 power shovel which is to be sold at public auction.

Commissioners authorized salvaging of materials on State Route 545 and the Stoller and Aten roads after those roads are vacated. The work is to be done in advance of the permanent flooding of the Clear Fork area.

Materials to be salvaged include cast iron and corrugated pipe, bridges and abutments.

Sets Rent Boost Goal

WASHINGTON — (UP) — Rent Director Tighe E. Woods set a goal of three weeks from today for granting the first rent increases under the new rent control law.

Other increases will be granted as rapidly as possible — where they are warranted. But even so, Woods said, not every landlord will get an increase under the new law which went into effect today.

Before any rents are boosted, Woods' experts must determine the amount of a "fair net operating income."

This determination will be made on the basis of an eight-year survey conducted by the rent director's office and the old Office of Price Administration, which controlled wartime rent levels.

All the figures are in Washington ready for analysis. It will be a big job, but Woods has set a goal of 12 days for this work alone. After that, individual applications will be considered at area rent control offices.

DAV Petition Nearly Filled

The petition being circulated by the Mansfield DAV Chapter No. 21 in protest of the government's proposed slash of 16,000 beds from VA hospitals now has 800 signatures of the 1,000 being sought.

Robert E. O'Leary, adjutant of the Mansfield DAV chapter, said more petitions were available and any veterans' organization wanting them could get them at the DAV club rooms at 102½ North Walnut street.

O'Leary expressed the desire for all veteran groups to get behind the protest to the government which is considering the 16,000 hospital bed cut-back.

Groundwork Laid For Farm Club In Richland County

The groundwork was laid last night for the Richland County Farmers club, an affiliate of the Mansfield Chamber of Commerce, at a meeting of nearly 50 farmers and Mansfield business men.

Thomas H. Sheppard, prominent county farmer, was appointed to head a 14-man committee to draft the constitution and by-laws of the new agricultural organization.

Ruhland D. Isaly, chairman of the Mansfield C of C agriculture committee, made the committee appointments.

The remainder of the constitutions writing committee was made up of C. N. McGrew, county agriculture extension agent, Guy L. Taylor, county AAA chairman; R. G. Hiett, Burr Knaus, Charles Hoffman, Judge C. H. Huston, Lewis L. Rinehart, W. J. Baldwin, J. O. Hanley, Daniel Witmer, A. L. Lockheart, A. C. Eckert, and Stanley Huston.

Attending the organization meeting and presenting many helpful suggestions to the group for the forming of a Farmers' club, was a delegation from the Hancock county Farmers club and the Findlay Chamber of Commerce.

Thomas Moorhead, farmer and president of the Hancock Farmers club, told how his farmers' group had benefitted from the organization of such a club.

J. Bert Swartz, Findlay banker and past president of the Findlay C of C, explained how the Farmers' club in Findlay (the Hancock county club) had furthered relations between the business men and farmers in that area.

Floyd J. Habein, secretary-manager of the Findlay chamber, said he disliked the line of "distinction" between "business" and "agriculture."

"If agriculture isn't a business, what is it?" Habein questioned.

Habein went on to explain how the Hancock farmers had learned to meet the Findlay businessman as a person who just happens to have his business address a little closer to Main street.

Dean W. Dickerson, president of the Mansfield C of C, and John G. Routzon, secretary-manager of the Mansfield Chamber, expressed their desire to see the formation in Richland county as a division of the Mansfield Chamber of Commerce.

Routzon was chosen by the committee of 14 to serve as temporary secretary of the group.

Zinc Plant Picketing End Ordered

Six CIO Members Draw Stiff Fines

COLUMBUS — (INS) — Franklin county Common Pleas Judge Dana F. Reynolds ordered yesterday that all picketing cease at the Columbus plant of the American Zinc Oxide company.

At the same time, Judge Reynolds found 16 members of the striking CIO Mine, Mill and Smelter workers union guilty of contempt of court. Fines of $200 and costs were assessed against 10 of the union members. The six others were fined $100 and costs.

The unionists were charged in a complaint lodged by the company with violating terms of a previous court injunction limiting the number of pickets at the plant gates.

The Columbus oxide local of the union has been on strike at the plant since last August 13. The company has refused to bargain with the union on grounds its international officers have not signed anti-communist affidavits as required by the Taft-Hartley labor law

Judge Reynolds told the union members that "the sacred right of democracy has been violated by your persistent violence in this picketing."

He continued:

"I have waited all through the trial for a contradiction of the evidence that violence was exhibited. There was no contradiction and none of the defendants took the stand in his own behalf."

Attorneys for the defendants said they would appeal Judge Raynolds' decision.

Bound Over In Fund Theft

Chester Estill, 165 Vennum avenue, pleaded guilty and was held to the grand jury on $1,000 bond in municipal court on an an embezzlement charge.

Estill, who had been a salesman for the Weather-Seal company of Central Ohio, 460 Newman street, was charged on an affidavit filed by the firm Aug. 16, 1948, with converting $594.69 of the company's money to his own use.

Estill left for Birmingham, Ala., and returned at the request of County Prosecutor Harold Lutz and surrendered himself today.

Lutz said Estill has no previous criminal record.

While the exact origin of mechanical clocks is not known, it is said that Pope Sylvester II invented one in about 990 A. D.

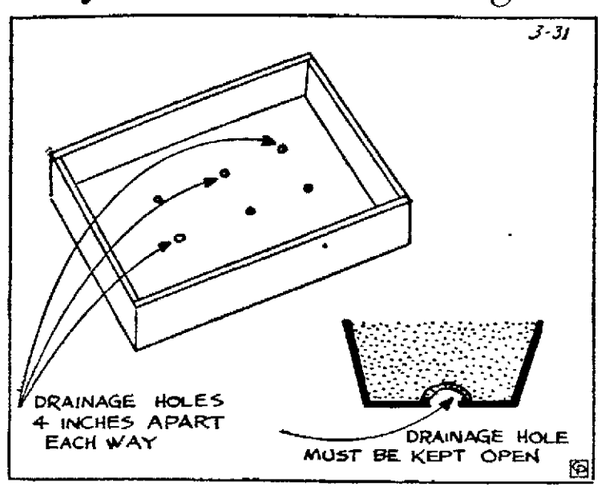
Today's Garden Graph

Early Start Aids Seedlings



By DEAN HALLIDAY
(By Central Press)

To have early vegetables, start the seeds of tomatoes, eggplants, cauliflower, early cabbage, early celery and peppers indoors. Starting this month can mean as much as six weeks gained over seeds planted outdoors when the weather permits.

Elaborate or expensive equipment is not necessary for indoor planting. Flower pots, cigar boxes, flats or any other containers may be used as long as proper drainage is provided.

If a flat is used see that it has six drainage holes four inches apart in the bottom, as illustrated in the accompanying Garden-Graph. If a flower pot is used, two or three pieces of broken crock should be inverted over the drainage hole in the bottom to prevent clogging, as illustrated.

An ideal soil mixture for seedlings consists of equal parts of rich garden loam, coarse sand and leafmold. The leafmold should be sifted through a quarter-inch sieve. Save the roughage to use for drainage in the bottom of the seed flats.

Bulb pans also are recommended for seedlings. They are easy to handle, easy to water from below and neat in appearance.

One should never use any fertilizer at this time, as it is not necessary and may damage or destroy the first tiny roots on the seedlings. Enough food is stored in each seed to enable the plant to grow until it can obtain its own nourishment from the soil.

Mine Blast Kills Three

PAINTSVILLE, KY. — (AP) — Three members of one family were injured fatally and a fourth was burned in the explosion of blasting powder at a small truck mine five miles northwest of here yesterday.

Ivan Vanhoose, 20, was killed outright. His brother, William, 25, died before he could be rescued, and the third victim, William Cisco, a brother-in-law of the Vanhooses, died after arriving at the Paintsville hospital.

A hospital spokesman said that Mitchell Vanhoose, a cousin of the brothers, is burned seriously but he will live.

State mine inspector Bob Williams led rescuers in recovering the bodies of the dead and injured.

The accident occurred on Tom's creek near Sitka, Ky., in a mine operated by the father of the brothers who died, Ken Vanhoose.

Boys Are Boys But Too Much Is Too Much

MIAMISBURG — (INS) — Boys will be boys but maybe a good thing can be carried too far.

Wilbur Carper, 65-year-old Miamisburg grocer, was nursing a battered head today because he refused to think a 17-year-old gunman was serious when he ordered the man to "stick 'em up."

Carper laughed at the youth who brandished a pistol and held a handkerchief over his mouth The lad pocketed his pistol and proceeded to slug the grocer with a homemade blackjack.

Carper "blacked out" while the youthful bandit helped himself to an undetermined amount of cash.

Physicians Stand Idle Among DP's

3,000 Still In Refugee Camps

GENEVA — (AP) — If any country in the world has areas where doctors are scarce, it need only apply to the International Refugee organization.

Nearly 3,000 highly qualified physicians and surgeons are living among displaced persons in European refugee camps, with little hope of ever again being allowed to help in the battle against disease and human suffering.

More than half these unemployed doctors are general practitioners. The remainder are specialists ranging from surgeons to psychiatrists. All of them have years of practice or research behind them in their former homes in eastern Europe.

Some of the doctors escaped from nazi death camps. Others were rounded up as nazi slave workers or spent the war caring for wounded partisans under the eyes of the Germans. Many of them are in their thirties or early forties and wish nothing more than to be allowed to use their skill in a new home, anywhere.

But nearly all countries admitting refugee -immigrants refuse to accept doctors because of the opposition of local medical associations, the IRO said in a recent report.

The report listed the personal qualifications of a random group of the unemployed doctors. Included is a 44-year-old Hungarian gynecologist, author of 53 published scientific works and former professor at a Hungarian university, deported to Germany in 1945 with his 20-year-old wife.

Cuff Stuff

By Fred Tharp

(News-Journal Sports Editor)

ALL WASHED UP . . . That's what many baseball experts said of Rapid Robert Feller last year. . . . But Bobby pooh-poohs the idea in the fastest issue of Sport magazine . . . He says, "It is dangerous on the part of my American league opponents to assume that I am washed up as a winning pitcher. I'm being complimented when somebody writes, 'Feller had a lousy year in 1948. He only won 19 games.' Worse things than that could happen to a pitcher, believe me. All I am saying is that I couldn't have fallen apart at the seams, as some people would have you think, or I wouldn't have missed my sixth 20-game season by such a small margin" . . . Talking about pitchers, Lefty Grove laughs when present day hillmen complain of the lively ball . . . Lefty, who won 300 games in 17 American league seasons, says, "The ball is no livelier than it was in 1925. Why, when it was hit in the outfield in those days it would bounce all over the place. The pitchers nowadays lack control. They always seem to be behind the batter and it's only natural for them to throw down the middle. When they do that there's no stuff on the ball and it gets quite a ride." . . . He figures Feller's trouble last year came from trying too many pitches . . . "After all," says Bob, "Walter Johnson, the greatest pitcher in baseball, never had a curve. I was the same way. We always depended on our fast ball. When Johnson or I threw a curve we made the batter happy."

Ike Williams Meets Gavilan

NEW YORK — (AP) — Trained to perfection and raring to go, lightweight champion Ike Williams and Kid Gavilan, the slick fighting machine from Cuba, will clash tonight in a ten-round non-title "rubber" bout in Madison Square Garden.

Dead-panned Ike is a 5 to 8 favorite. It's a heavy betting affair with plenty of money showing for both boxers.

A sellout crowd of 18,000 is expected to contribute to a $90,000 gate for the boxing finale of the Garden's winter season.

Coolridge Links Open 'Saturday

Mansfielders were scheduled for their first round of golf play tomorrow when the Coolridge links open for the season.

Coolridge manager Fred Huntsman has spent much of this week working on the course and reports that, barring another heavy rain, it will be in good shape tomorrow.

LIMA — (INS) — State high school Athletic association Commissioner H. W. Emswiler spoke to 100 members of the western Ohio Basketball officials Association at Lima last night.

Lettermen Abound at Senior High

Mansfield's scholastic spring sports program will get under way tomorrow afternoon when the Senior high track and field aggregation meets Columbus East on the Stadium field cinders at 1:30.

The Madison baseball team had been scheduled to open the season yesterday at Blue Goose park against Galion but the game was called off because of wet grounds. No date has been set for the replay of the contest.

13 VETERANS

With 13 lettermen off last year's district championship crew striving for top billing, the Tygers should have little trouble annexing their first meet. Senior high placed sixth in state competition in 1948.

Coach Harry Mehock has nominated a cast of 31 athletes to oppose the East thinclads. Among the lettermen, Tom Tucker, A. C. Jenkins, Willie Fowler and Paul Hammond will be the workhorses in the opener.

Little Tommy Tucker is listed for the 100, 220, broad jump and 880-yard relay. He placed in the 100 and broad jump in the '48 state meet and rates as an early favorite in Ohio sprints this year. He was second in the leap and third in the century.

Jenkins will go in both hurdles races and the discus. Fowler is listed for the 440, high jump and mile relay while Hammond will try for a double in the mile and 880. All of the quartet except Hammond are juniors. Paul is a senior.

Paul "Pinky" Ferguson, the football and basketball star, will go in the pole vault and high jump. Other lettermen listed for action tomorrow are: John Bricker, sprints; Alan Poorman and Rudy Sheetz, distance events; Harry Osbun and Ken Snyder, shot put, and Don Cline pole vault. Bricker and Cline are juniors and the rest are seniors.

OTHER SQUADMEN

Remainder of the squad, announced today by Mehock, follows: Harry Carr and Clarence Bailey, sprints; Sonny Wadlington and George Russell, hurdles; Jerry Gerrell, George Middlebrook, Jim Hager and Ken Berkey, distances; Ophinel Davis, John Petty and John Fowler, 440; Jim Kibler and John Wakely, relays; George Shoulders, high jump and broad jump; Jim Meister and Jay Herbert, pole vault; Tom Weaver, Esker Jordan, Bob Hipp and Howie Tipper, weights.

Two changes in the Tyger track schedule were announced today by Fred Staub, faculty manager of athletics. The Tygers will defend their title in the Uhrichsville relays April 30 and run the Bucyrus trackmen at Stadium field May 10.

State Looking For 5 Games

COLUMBUS — (AP) — Tippy Dye, Ohio State's basketball mentor, was out to book five more games for his 1949-50 gage team today. The athletic board has approved a 17-game schedule for the Bucks. Dye said he hoped to book California for the Fairgrounds coliseum Dec. 22-23, a single game with St. Louis and a home-and-home arrangement with Depaul.

The schedule:

Dec. 5 - Marquette: Dec. 10 at Butler; Dec. 28 - Cornell at Michigan State; Dec. 29 - Harvard at Michigan State; Jan. 7 - Illinois; Jan. 14 - Northwestern; Jan. 16 - Michigan; Jan. 21 - at Illinois; Jan. 23 - Iowa; Jan. 28 - at Minnesota; Jan. 30 - at Purdue; Feb. 4 - Wisconsin; Feb. 6 - at Indiana; Feb. 11 — Michigan State; Feb. 18 at Northwestern, Feb. 20 - Indiana; and Feb. 27 - at Michigan.

Columbus Mayor Third In Golf Honor Rating

CHICAGO — (AP) — Mayor James A. Rhodes of Columbus, yesterday placed third in the annual poll of the golf writers' association of America for the man who made the outstanding contribution to golf in 1948.

Maynard G. Fesseaden, president of the Western Golf association was first and Bing Crosby, second.

THE APPROACH—Tyger veteran Harry Osbun catapults across the restraining circle as he prepares to release the shot in a workout at Stadium field. Osbun won his track letter as a sophomore but missed all of last season because of a football injury. Osbun will be one of the favorites tomorrow as Senior high opens its 1949 track schedule against Columbus East at Stadium field at 1:30 p. m.—(News-Journal staff photo)

Eddie Miller Gets Along All Right With Phillies

CLEARWATER, Fla.—(AP)—For a man labeled "hard to get along with" over a 12-year span, Eddie Miller is a revelation with the Phillies.

The 32-year-old veteran who has bounced around the National league since 1936 is trying a new job—at his own suggestion. After 1,361 games as a big league shortstop, Miller has switched to second base.

"I saw the kid (Granville Hamner) playing such good ball," said Miller. "he has a great arm and hits the ball good. And he's young. I knew he was the shortstop. I expected it."

For the last few years, Miller has had arm trouble. Hitters have been able to beat out balls hit to deep short against him. It may be that his arm is better suited for the short snap throws from second base.

Eddie talks frankly about the "hard to get along with" label. It used to bother him but now he's resigned to it.

"Last time I opened my mouth I wound up being traded off the ball club."

Miller referred to the Hamilton, O., incident of the 1947-48 winter. Some remarks he made in a question-and-answer period at a men's club dinner, were construed as criticism of Johnny Neun, then his manager at Cincinnati.

POPPING OFF

"I never meant Johnny any harm," said Miller. "Somebody asked me what was the difference between the style of play Bill McKechnie used and the kind Neun used. I said McKechnie preferred defense and Neun went for the big inning. Then they asked me what I liked best I should have stopped them right there, I guess. But I said both were good men but I liked the McKechnie style.

"There was a big rumpus after that. Of course they had to sell me. I came over to the Phils in a deal for Johnny Wyrostek."

This same Miller "retired" from baseball after the 1946 season. He said his arm was so bad he didn't feel like playing any more. He finally came out of "retirement" to play 151 games for the Reds. Then came the speech at Hamilton.

1st Christian Takes Junior Church Upset

First Christian came from behind in the second half last night at the YMCA to defeat St. Pauls, 30-28, in an important Junior church league basketball game.

The victory enabled First Christian to finish the second half race in a tie with St. John's. A playoff will be held sometime soon, with a second game necessary if First Christian wins. St. John's was the first half champion and will automatically annex the season title if it wins the second half.

Bob Hartnett led First Christian with 14 points last night.

Player Dozes, Ends In Ditch

STEWART, MISS. — (AP) — Ernie Funk, rookie hurler in the Detroit Tigers farm system, was injured slightly yesterday when his car plunged into a ditch near here.

He apparently dozed at the wheel, state highway patrolman Joedy Johnston said.

Johnston said the 19-year-old pitcher was treated by a physician for minor cuts and bruises.

School Athlete Turns Off Power

PORTLAND, ME. — (AP) — A high school hammer thrower darkened scores of suburban Portland streets last night.

Fred Stickney, 17, heaved his 12-pound ball into some power lines. The hammer cable wound around the wires, short-circuiting them. Street lights in the Rosemont and Nason's corner districts were out for 15 minutes to half an hour.

Lippy Leo Durocher On Pilot Hot Seat; Has to Produce With Giants—Or Else

By LEO H. PETERSEN
(UP Sports Editor)

NEW YORK — The first major league manager to go on the spot in 1949 is Lippy Leo Durocher of the New York Giants.

He has to produce—or else.

Actually, he was put on that spot last July when he switched from the Dodgers to the Giants. He was brought to the Polo Grounds with only one thought in mind—to make a pennant winner of a club which owner Horace Stoneham is convinced has championship possibilities.

Mel Ott couldn't bring them out so, despite the hatred which Durocher had built up at the Polo grounds during his years with the Dodgers, Stoneham decided to bring him across the river.

It was quite a shock to Giant followers and they will stand for it only if Durocher comes through.

The odds are against it.

For Durocher inherited a comparatively old club that is slow and lacks the fire and pepper which marked his Dodger clubs. It is a team with the most potential power in the league, and perhaps the worst pitching

PITCHING IS WORRY

That pitching is Durocher's big worry was made plain when the Giants shipped $50,000 to the Dodgers for Hank Behrman, a baseball "bad boy" whose outside activities have kept him from cashing in on his promise. The only good year he enjoyed in the majors was under Durocher and it probably was with that thought in mind that The Lip got Stoneham to take a chance on the speed ball right hander.

Durocher is figuring on Behrman as a starter to go along with Larry Jansen, the ace of the staff; Sheldon Jones, Montia Kennedy, Dave Koslo, Andy Hansen and Cliff Hartung. That leaves Ray Poat, Rookie Sam Webb and Bill Ayers for second line duty.

For hitting power Durocher is looking to Johnny Mize at first, Sid Gordon at third; Willard Marshall, Whitey Lockman and Bobby Thomson in the outfield, and big Walker Cooper behind the plate. It could well form the murderer's row of 1949.

But the array does lack fielding finesse and as a whole, speed. That takes something away from the batting power.

Rounding out the infield will be Bill Rigney at second and Buddy Kerr at shortstop, for infield utility duty lucky Jack Lohrke and Joe Lafata, who also can play the outfield, have the inside track while for the reserve outfield berth Don Mueller, a rookie who hit .358 in 36 games for the Giants late last season, was the leading candidate.

Mickey Livingston, an able receiver but a weak hitter, will help Cooper with the catching.

Hogan Heads For His Home In Fort Worth

EL PASO, Tex. — (AP) — Plucky little Ben Hogan was on a train today headin' for home.

He'll be back on the links again some day, he says.

The national golf pace setter until an automobile accident last Feb. 2 laid him low, Hogan walked the length of a pullman car last night when he boarded the train here.

Last night he said he is definitely "out of the rough and again headed down the fairway."

At least once, his life was feared for when blood clots developed from his injuries. He suffered multiple fractures when his automobile and a bus crashed near Van Horn, Tex.

Hogan's home is at Fort Worth but he plays out of Hershey, Pa. He was 1948 national open and national PGA champion and leading money winner of the year. He was leading the cash parade this year until the accident. He has been a top player for 10 years.

60 to Attend Officials Fete

Some 60 coaches and officials are expected to attend the North Central Ohio Officials association banquet next Monday night at the Creamer hotel, according to Jimmy Lymper, secretary-treasurer of the organization.

Officers for the 1949-50 season will be elected at the fete. In addition to Lymper, other officers are. Tony Grant, president and Jack Robeson, vice-president.

H. W. Emswiler, Ohio high school athletic commissioner, will speak at the meeting and Fred Tharp will act as toastmaster.

CLEVELAND — (INS) — Some of the nation's top auto jockeys will open the midget auto season at suburban Bedford's Sportsman park April 10

G-R Softball League Deal

Gorman-Rupp's fate in regards to the Ohio Inter-City softball league may decided Sunday at a meeting of the circuit scheduled for Akron.

Nick Weber, field manager of the local combine plans to attend the confab and may return with something definite on whether or not Gorman-Rupp will be admitted.

Weber said it was almost a a certainty that the North-Central Ohio Inter-City league in which Gorman-Rupp participated last year would not operate again.

Ohio State Wins Three Dive Spots

DAYTONA BEACH, Fla.—(INS)—Three out of five positions in the one-meter springboard diving event put Ohio State's mermen in strong position today to win the National AAU indoor swim title at Daytona Beach.

Olympic diving Champ Bruce Harlan easily copped the one meter crown with 145.56 points to succeed Miller Anderson, his former teammate.

Ohio State's Jack Calhoun was second, and, surprisingly enough, Skippy Browning of Dallas, Tex., came in third. Hobie Billingsley, another Ohioan, took fourth place.

Dick Thoman, representing the Coca Cola swim club of Cincinnati, paddled in third in the 100-yard free style, and Ralph Knight of Ohio State was fifth in the 150-yard back stroke.

BREAKS RECORD

Joe Verdeur, from La Salle college, toppled the 300-yard individual medley record. Representing the Brighton Hotel swim club of Atlantic City, he went the 100-yard breast stroke, 100-yard back stroke and 100-yard free style in three minutes, 22.9 seconds.

Wally Ris of Iowa and Allen Stack of the New Haven, Conn., swim club, successfully defended their titles in the 100-yard free style and the 150-yard back stroke.

Ris splashed his 100 yards in 51.4 seconds and Stack came in in one minute 30.7 seconds.

Tyger Thinlies Open Spring Sked Saturday

Cuff Stuff

By Fred Tharp

(News-Journal Sports Editor)

ALL WASHED UP . . . That's what many baseball experts said of Rapid Robert Feller last year. . . . But Bobby pooh-poohs the idea in the lastest issue of Sport magazine . . . He says, "It is dangerous on the part of my American league opponents to assume that I am washed up as a winning pitcher. I'm being complimented when somebody writes, 'Feller had a lousy year in 1948. He only won 19 games.' Worse things than that could happen to a pitcher, believe me. All I am saying is that I couldn't have fallen apart at the seams, as some people would have you think, or I wouldn't have missed my sixth 20-game season by such a small margin" . . . Talking about pitchers, Lefty Grove laughs when present day hillmen complain of the lively ball . . . Lefty, who won 300 games in 17 American league seasons, says, "The ball is no livelier than it was in 1925. Why, when it was hit in the outfield in those days it would bounce all over the place. The pitchers nowadays lack control. They always seem to be behind the batter and it's only natural for them to throw down the middle. When they do that there's no stuff on the ball and it gets quite a ride." . . . He figures Feller's trouble last year came from trying too many pitches . . . "After all," says Bob, "Walter Johnson, the greatest pitcher in baseball, never had a curve. I was the same way. We always depended on our fast ball. When Johnson or I threw a curve we made the batter happy."

Lettermen Abound at Senior High

Mansfield's scholastic spring sports program will get under way tomorrow afternoon when the Senior high track and field aggregation meets Columbus East on the Stadium field cinders at 1:30.

The Madison baseball team had been scheduled to open the season yesterday at Blue Goose park against Galion but the game was called off because of wet grounds. No date has been set for the replay of the contest.

13 VETERANS

With 13 lettermen off last year's district championship crew striving for top billing, the Tygers should have little trouble annexing their first meet. Senior high placed sixth in state competition in 1948.

Coach Harry Mehock has nominated a cast of 31 athletes to oppose the East thinclads. Among the lettermen, Tom Tucker, A. C. Jenkins, Willie Fowler and Paul Hammond will be the workhorses in the opener.

Little Tommy Tucker is listed for the 100, 220, broad jump and 880-yard relay. He placed in the 100 and broad jump in the '48 state meet and rates as an early favorite in Ohio sprints this year. He was second in the leap and third in the century.

Jenkins will go in both hurdles races and the discus. Fowler is listed for the 440, high jump and mile relay while Hammond will try for a double in the mile and 880. All of the quartet except Hammond are juniors. Paul is a senior.

Paul "Pinky" Ferguson, the football and basketball star, will go in the pole vault and high jump. Other lettermen listed for action tomorrow are: John Bricker, sprints; Alan Poorman and Rudy Sheetz, distance events; Harry Osbun and Ken Snyder, shot put, and Don Cline pole vault. Bricker and Cline are juniors and the rest are seniors.

OTHER SQUADMEN

Remainder of the squad, announced today by Mehock, follows: Harry Carr and Clarence Bailey, sprints; Sonny Wadlington and George Russell, hurdles; Jerry Gerrell, George Middlebrook, Jim Hager and Ken Berkey, distances; Ophinel Davis, John Petty and John Fowler, 440; Jim Kibler and John Wakely, relays; George Shoulders, high jump and broad jump; Jim Meister and Jay Herbert, pole vault; Tom Weaver, Esker Jordan, Bob Hipp and Howie Tipper, weights.

Two changes in the Tyger track schedule were announced today by Fred Staub, faculty manager of athletics. The Tygers will defend their title in the Uhrichsville relays April 30 and run the Bucyrus trackmen at Stadium field May 10.

THE APPROACH—Tyger veteran Harry Osbun catapults across the restraining circle as he prepares to release the shot in a workout at Stadium field. Osbun won his track letter as a sophomore but missed all of last season because of a football injury. Osbun will be one of the favorites tomorrow as Senior high opens its 1949 track schedule against Columbus East at Stadium field at 1:30 p. m.—(News-Journal staff photo)

Eddie Miller Gets Along All Right With Phillies

CLEARWATER, Fla.—(AP)—For a man labeled "hard to get along with" over a 12-year span, Eddie Miller is a revelation with the Phillies.

The 32-year-old veteran who has bounced around the National league since 1936 is trying a new job—at his own suggestion. After 1,361 games as a big league shortstop, Miller has switched to second base.

"I saw the kid (Granville Hamner) playing such good ball," said Miller. "he has a great arm and hits the ball good. And he's young. I knew he was the shortstop. I expected it."

For the last few years, Miller has had arm trouble. Hitters have been able to beat out balls hit to deep short against him. It may be that his arm is better suited for the short snap throws from second base.

Eddie talks frankly about the "hard to get along with" label. It used to bother him but now he's resigned to it.

"Last time I opened my mouth I wound up being traded off the ball club."

Miller referred to the Hamilton, O., incident of the 1947-48 winter. Some remarks he made in a question-and-answer period at a men's club dinner, were construed as criticism of Johnny Neun, then his manager at Cincinnati.

POPPING OFF

"I never meant Johnny any harm," said Miller. "Somebody asked me what was the difference between the style of play Bill McKechnie used and the kind Neun used. I said McKechnie preferred defense and Neun went for the big inning. Then they asked me what I liked best. I should have stopped them right there, I guess. But I said both were good men but I liked the McKechnie style.

"There was a big rumpus after that. Of course they had to sell me. I came over to the Phils in a deal for Johnny Wyrostek."

This same Miller "retired" from baseball after the 1946 season. He said his arm was so bad he didn't feel like playing any more. He finally came out of "retirement" to play 151 games for the Reds. Then came the speech at Hamilton.

1st Christian Takes Junior Church Upset

First Christian came from behind in the second half last night at the YMCA to defeat St. Pauls, 30-28, in an important Junior church league basketball game.

The victory enabled First Christian to finish the second half race in a tie with St. John's. A playoff will be held sometime soon, with a second game necessary if First Christian wins. St. John's was the first half champion and will automatically annex the season title if it wins the second half.

Bob Hartnett led First Christian with 14 points last night.

PORTLAND, ME. — (AP) — A high school hammer thrower darkened scores of suburban Portland streets last night.

Lippy Leo Durocher On Pilot Hot Seat; Has to Produce With Giants—Or Else

By LEO H. PETERSEN
(UP Sports Editor)

NEW YORK — The first major league manager to go on the spot in 1949 is Lippy Leo Durocher of the New York Giants.

He has to produce—or else.

Actually, he was put on that spot last July when he switched from the Dodgers to the Giants. He was brought to the Polo Grounds with only one thought in mind—to make a pennant winner of a club which owner Horace Stoneham is convinced has championship possibilities.

Mel Ott couldn't bring them out so, despite the hatred which Durocher had built up at the Polo grounds during his years with the Dodgers, Stoneham decided to bring him across the river.

It was quite a shock to Giant followers and they will stand for it only if Durocher comes through.

The odds are against it.

For Durocher inherited a comparatively old club that is slow and lacks the fire and pepper which marked his Dodger clubs. It is a team with the most potential power in the league, and perhaps the worst pitching.

PITCHING IS WORRY

That pitching is Durocher's big worry was made plain when the Giants shipped $50,000 to the Dodgers for Hank Behrman, a baseball "bad boy" whose outside activities have kept him from cashing in on his promise. The only good year he enjoyed in the majors was under Durocher and it probably was with that thought in mind that The Lip got Stoneham to take a chance on the speed ball right hander.

Durocher is figuring on Behrman as a starter to go along with Larry Jansen, the ace of the staff; Sheldon Jones, Montia Kennedy, Dave Koslo, Andy Hansen and Cliff Hartung. That leaves Ray Poat, Rookie Sam Webb and Bill Ayers for second line duty.

For hitting power Durocher is looking to Johnny Mize at first, Sid Gordon at third; Willard Marshall, Whitey Lockman and Bobby Thomson in the outfield, and big Walker Cooper behind the plate. It could well form the murderer's row of 1949.

But the array does lack fielding finesse and as a whole, speed. That takes something away from the batting power.

Rounding out the infield will be Bill Rigney at second and Buddy Kerr at shortstop, for infield utility duty lucky Jack Lohrke and Joe Lafata, who also can play the outfield, have the inside track while for the reserve outfield berth Don Mueller, a rookie who hit .358 in 36 games for the Giants late last season, was the leading candidate.

Mickey Livingston, an able receiver but a weak hitter, will help Cooper with the catching.

Hogan Heads For His Home In Fort Worth

EL PASO, Tex. — (AP) — Plucky little Ben Hogan was on a train today headin' for home.

He'll be back on the links again some day, he says.

The national golf pace setter until an automobile accident last Feb. 2 laid him low, Hogan walked the length of a pullman car last night when he boarded the train here.

Last night he said he is definitely "out of the rough and again headed down the fairway."

At least once, his life was feared for when blood clots developed from his injuries. He suffered multiple fractures when his automobile and a bus crashed near Van Horn, Tex.

Hogan's home is at Fort Worth but he plays out of Hershey, Pa. He was 1948 national open and national PGA champion and leading money winner of the year. He was leading the cash parade this year until the accident. He has been a top player for 10 years.

60 to Attend Officials Fete

Some 60 coaches and officials are expected to attend the North Central Ohio Officials association banquet next Monday night at the Creamer hotel, according to Jimmy Lymper, secretary-treasurer of the organization.

Officers for the 1949-50 season will be elected at the fete. In addition to Lymper, other officers are: Tony Grant, president and Jack Robeson, vice-president.

H. W. Emswiler, Ohio high school athletic commissioner, will speak at the meeting and Fred Tharp will act as toastmaster.

Weber said it was almost a a certainty that the North-Central Ohio Inter-City league in which Gorman-Rupp participated last year would not operate again.

Ohio State Wins Three Dive Spots

DAYTONA BEACH, Fla.—(INS)—Three out of five positions in the one-meter springboard diving event put Ohio State's mermen in strong position today to win the National AAU indoor swim title at Daytona Beach.

Olympic diving Champ Bruce Harlan easily copped the one meter crown with 145.56 points to succeed Miller Anderson, his former teammate.

Ohio State's Jack Calhoun was second, and, surprisingly enough, Skippy Browning of Dallas, Tex., came in third. Hobie Billingsley, another Ohioan, took fourth place.

Dick Thoman, representing the Coca Cola swim club of Cincinnati, paddled in third in the 100-yard free style, and Ralph Knight of Ohio State was fifth in the 150-yard back stroke.

BREAKS RECORD

Joe Verdeur, from La Salle college, toppled the 300-yard individual medley record. Representing the Brighton Hotel swim club of Atlantic City, he went the 100-yard breast stroke, 100-yard back stroke and 100-yard free style in three minutes, 22.9 seconds.

Wally Ris of Iowa and Allen Stack of the New Haven, Conn., swim club, successfully defended their titles in the 100-yard free style and the 150-yard back stroke.

Ris splashed his 100 yards in 51.4 seconds and Stack came in in one minute 30.7 seconds.

Pitching Trouble Staggers Cleveland Club

Bearden and Lemon Rapped In Defeat

TUCSON—(INS)—The Cleveland Indians, like so many other ball clubs this spring, are staggering under the effects of pitcher trouble today.

What with most Tribe hurlers being belted freely and Gene Bearden shelved with a leg injury, Manager Lou Boudreau is finding some difficulty in straightening out his operational problems.

Bearden is the main problem so far. According to Trainer Lefty Weisman, the pulled muscle in Bearden's right leg is near the sciatic region and could cause plenty of trouble.

STAY IN BED

Boudreau has ordered the steady southpaw to remain in bed for at least two days before resuming training. Weisman indicated Bearden likely would not be ready to pitch for a week or more.

Bob Lemon became the latest Indian moundsman to suffer the effects of wildness yesterday as the Chicago White Sox walloped the Tribe, 10-2, in an abbreviated five-inning fray.

Lemon gave up eight runs in a wild third inning in which he walked five men, four in a row. He had a good excuse, however, in that he was pitching into the wind and was unable to control the ball.

The Sox got to rookie Dick Rozek for two more runs in the fifth before a halt was called to the proceedings.

Cleveland's offensive punch was noticeably lacking. The Tribesmen got their first run on three walks and Mickey Vernon's grounder. Larry Doby smacked a wind-driven home run over the left field wall for the Indians' second tally in the fourth.

Max Surkont, Chicago twirler, gave Cleveland but two hits all together.

PAIGE TO SHARE

Ageless Satchel Paige, who still hasn't allowed a run this year, was to share mound duties with Early Wynn when the Indians clash with the White Sox in the final game of their three-game joust.

Bill Wight and Howard Judson were to share Chicago hilltop duties.

Hank Ruszkowski took his departure from the Tribe's Tucson base yesterday after he's option to the San Diego Padres of the Pacific league.

Reds Lose Third . . .

TAMPA, FLA. — (INS) — The Cincinnati Reds will strive today to break a three-game losing streak when they go against Detroit at Tampa.

The Cincinnatians dropped an almost unbelievable 10-9 decision, sparked by four Red homers, yesterday to the Washington Senators.

Meanwhile, the Reds have sent second baseman Benny Sientara, their top hitter in 1946, to their international league farm club at Syracuse.

Three rookies, outfielder Steve Filopowicz and pitchers Jim Blackburn and Jim Avrea also departed for Tulsa in the Texas league.

The Senators ran up an early 6-1 lead yesterday but Cincinnati caught fire in the fifth, with four runs, including a circuit clout by rookie Charlie Kress, who chased in two other runs.

Hank Sauer also got a three-run homer in the seventh, and Grady Hatton and Ray Mueller poled themselves in with single swats in the first and sixth, to account for the Rhinelanders' total score.

The Reds outhit the Senators 16-13 and bettered them in scoring after the fourth inning, but that early lead was just too much.

★

First Showdown . . .

ST. PETERSBURG FLA — (AP) — The Boston Red Sox invaded the New York Yankee camp today, setting the state for the first showdown of the year between Ted Williams and Joe DiMaggio.

The Yankee clipper, still nursing an ailing heel was due in the New York starting lineup for only the second time this spring. He rested yesterday after playing six innings Wednesday.

Vic Raschi, who's never beaten Boston in regular season play, was expected to start on the mound for New Yrok The Yankees beat the Boston Braves, 9-7, yesterday.

★

Gives Fans Show . . .

HOUSTON, TEX. — (AP) — Jackie Robinson, the Brooklyn Dodgers' biggest box office attraction on the spring tour, is giving the fans their money's worth.

The agile Negro second baseman has never looked better since he broke into organized baseball three seasons ago. His batting average is tops on the club and he has been improving it almost daily. In yesterday's 8-1 victory over San Antonio he collected a double and two singles in five trips to the plate, knocked in two runs, scored once and stole a base.

★

To Break Camp . . .

LAKELAND, FLA. — (AP) — The Detroit Tigers are starting to break camp for the trip north with only two exhibition games to go.

General Manager Billy Evans left yesterday for Detroit where it was announced that all 35,000 reserved seats for the American league home opener have been sold. The Tigers open against the Chicago White Sox April 19.

★

Will Try Again . . .

ST. PETERSBURG, FLA. — (AP) — The St. Louis Cardinals, beaten in their last two starts, will try again for victory against a national league opponent today. They meet the Boston Braves at Bradenton, Fla.

Jim Hearn and Ken Johnson are scheduled to hurl for the cards. The New York Giants beat the cards, 4-1, yesterday.

★

Back For More . . .

HAINES CITY, FLA. — (UP) — The Philadelphia athletics, who enjoyed a brisk batting practice session yesterday at the expense of the Newark Bears, were back for some more of the same today.

The A's combed southpaw Bill Woop and Pete Gebrian for 18 hits yesterday and an easy 20 to 5 triumph. Hank Majeski led the onslaught with four hits.

Cleveland Barons Out of Playoffs

(By United Press)

The Hershey Bears, unbeaten in four starts in the American hockey league playoffs, secured a berth in the calder cup finals today, while Providence and St. Louis still were locked in a fierce battle for the other post.

Hershey wrapped up its bid for the championship series last night by posting a 5 to 1 victory over the Cleveland Barons, last year's Calder cup winners.

Brock's New Omaha Coach

OMAHA—(AP)—James E. (Tom) Brock, athletic director and coach at King's College, Wilkes-Barre, Pa., has been named head football line coach, assistant basketball coach, and instructor in physical education at the University of Omaha.

Abbott Leads Class B Set In Head Pin

Ken Abbott—who didn't succeed at first—tried again and emerged yesterday as the new leader in the Class B division of the News-Journal Head pin tournament.

Abbott missed eight times for a 251 count in his first game but came right back and tossed 309 with only one miss in the lot. He hit the headpin 33 straight frames before missing in the 10th frame of his third game. A strike in that frame would have given him 319 and temporary leadership for the tournament trophy.

Cliff Forsythe rolled 318 in Class A on the tournament opening night. Dick Treisch had led Class B since Sunday with 307.

Other scores rolled yesterday were: Men's Class A—Joe Harrod, 253; Men's B—John Takos 279, Phil Hergatt, 232; Men's C—Frank Radler, 281, Walters Harmon 271, A. J. Carnes 268, E. Roberts 219; Women's A—Helen Wilhelm 239; Women's C — Mary Danals 207; Gwenn Duffy 167

Liscombe Takes Second Puck Cup

NEW YORK — (UP) — Carl Liscombe, who wasn't even good enough to make the American hockey league's all-star first team, had the last laugh today by adding the circuit's "cleanest player" award to his already-won most valuable player trophy.

The veteran Providence Reds left Wingman received the clean player award for best combining gentlemanly conduct on the ice with effective playing ability. Liscombe edged Sid Smith of Pittsburgh, 17 votes to 16 while Danny Sprout of Cleveland had 14.

Five Men Make Honor Roll In Commercial 'B' League

Only two leagues turned in scores from the Colony bowling alleys last night and both included some fine individual performances. Five honor roll scores graced the roster of the Commercial B league and eight of the fair sex went over the 500 mark in the Women's Commercial A.

Emmett McIntire led the pin-spilling barrage in the men's loop as he toppled 233-188-236—647 for Ingram-Martin. Two Dearman's Transportation bowlers were next in line—Alex Zacharzuk with 179-224-222—625 and Darrell McCullough with 226-203-190 — 619. Dick Treisch led Rose Bowl to the second high team score of the season as he rolled 191-223-204—618 and Art Hilborn counted 220-182-210—612 for Yunckers.

Third-place Rose Bowl fell only four pins short of the season high team score for the league with a 2951, on games of 983-1000-968. Dearman's Transportation made the biggest advance in the standings however as it swept three games from Schroer's to move into a tie for first place with Yunckers, which won two of three from Ringside Nite club.

All five Rose Bowl men were in the high brackets. Treisch set the pace but was closely followed by A. Stirtzinger, 599; Joe DeYarmon, just back from an ABC stint, 597; Joe Vilella, 572, and Paul Walrick, 565. Other scores included: Jack Hanrahan, Mansfield Rug, 575; George Condos, Lions, 562; and George Gump, Oak Park Tavern, 561.

Jerry's 36 Bar, city tournament champions, took two of three games from the powerful Ohio Sports Center team to cut Sport Center's Women's A lead to seven games.

Sis DeWeese led 36 Bar with 194-192-201—587 and Kitty Robinson helped out considerably with 500. Donna Schuster's 500 topped Sport Center.

Ev Swank of City News had the top single game, 214 and runner-up series score, 547. Helen Wilhelm and Evelyn Marshman, both of Lemley's Cleaners, tied with 538; Kate Warga, PD's Bar, had 525; and Lil LeMunyon, PD's, 503.

Dorothy Kepler was tops in the Amvets Auxiliary league at the Richland Recreation alleys. She had 134-120-164—418 for Drive-in-ette.

Second went to Margie Beveridge, Brandenburg Chevrolet, with 400. Others: Hulda Pahls, Hughes Hardware, 399 and Margie Fox, Brandenburg, 377. The cellar-dwelling Chevrolets took two of three from second-place Kallmertin and Baer.

Baseball Suit Decision Due

NEW YORK — (INS) — Federal Judge Edward A. Conger will hand down a decision today in the legal motion of Max Lanier and Fred Martin, former members of the St. Louis Cardinals, for a temporary injunction that would reinstate them in organized baseball.

The two players were banned in 1946 for jumping to the "outlaw" Mexican league.

For the past week Judge Conger has been studying briefs submitted by John L. Flynn, representing the two players, and by Mark F. Hughes, attorney for baseball officialdom.
